EDITORS' CHOICE

One of the little treats we get every year is an early peek at the new television series. And every year we hear the same question from people we meet: "What's good?"

Chances are you'd ask that, too—so here are our answers. Mind, we're talking about the series we liked best—not necessarily those we think will win the ratings race. (That depends—sometimes heavily—on where and how a series is scheduled: the night of the week, the time slot, the shows that surround it, and the competition.) Regrettably, too, no pilots were available for some series; thus we were able to screen only two of ABC's seven new shows. Obviously we can't sing the praises of a new series we haven't seen.

With those disclaimers, we raise a toast to NBC's Cheers (p. 68), a half hour of the best kind of comedy—the funny kind. The series is produced by two of the men who had a hand in Taxi. But unlike Taxi's dreary garage, Cheers' bar is bright and inviting—and filled with wisecrackin' wackos.

We are cheered too by the return of Bob Newhart (p. 46), who's now the proprietor of a historic 18th-century inn in Vermont that turns out to have had a checkered past. (Some patriotic matrons will learn that their great-great-great grandmothers may have been . . . fun dates.) Witty writing and Newhart's masterful comic timing make it a pleasure to welcome CBS's half-hour Newhart onto the fall schedule.

We also liked NBC's Family Ties (p. 60), a comedy graced by Meredith Baxter Birney. It's a humorous look at the generation gap in reverse: the parents are former '60s radicals who can't understand how their kids turned out so right, as in -wing.

We saw only a 10-minute sample of scenes from NBC's St. Elsewhere (p. 52), but that and five excellent scripts were enough to raise hopes that this series may do for the hospital drama what Hill Street Blues does for the inner-city police precinct—which is to offer a richly drawn entertainment that's about as good as television gets.

The electricity between Stephanie Zimbalist and Pierce Brosnan in NBC's Remington Steele (p. 78) hints at a lively matchup for this detective duo. And ABC's Matt Houston (p. 40), with Lee Horsley as a wealthy private eye, is a lavishly produced whodunit with a sense of fun. A 10-year-old and a teenager of our acquaintance enjoyed CBS's Square Pegs (p. 45), but we noticed some grownups giggling too at the caricatures of contemporary adolescents in this half-hour comedy.

Those are our choices, which is not to say that they will be—or should be—yours. A large part of the fun each fall is sampling the new series and finding your own favorites. Happy hunting! (END)

TITLES BY JOHN ALCORN

The blockbuster miniseries is back in a big way this season: 16 hours of The Winds of War, nine hours of The Thorn Birds and eight of The Blue and the Gray. They're all sprawling dramas loaded with big-budget production values and big-name stars. Speaking of stars, this season TV-movies and miniseries have lured some film superstars who generally have shunned television drama before, among them Gregory Peck, Jane Fonda, Robert Mitchum and Ali MacGraw.

Partly because pay cable is snatching up first-run feature films, the networks have ordered more of their own "never-seen-before film premieres," a.k.a. TV-movies. A sampling is listed below. Both CBS and ABC are cashing in on Charles and Diana's royal romance. And all the networks have concocted film vehicles of varying quality for their series stars.

In the specials area, two of NBC's biggest stars have anniversaries this season: Johnny Carson celebrates his 20th as host of The Tonight Show and Bob Hope the 80th anniversary of his birth.

MINISERIES

The Blue and the Gray (CBS, eight hours, Nov.) is the Civil War saga based on Bruce Catton's book that has finally lured Gregory Peck to TV. He'll play Abraham Lincoln. Stacy Keach and John Hammond star in the saga of a nation (and family) divided.

The Thorn Birds (ABC, nine hours, spring) features Richard Chamberlain as the ambitious priest who is the romantic interest of a willful beauty (Rachel Ward) from the Australian Outback. Other big-name stars: Barbara Stanwyck, Jean Simmons, Richard Kiley, Piper Laurie, Earl Holliman, Bryan Brown and Mare Winningham.

The Winds of War (ABC, 16 hours, Feb. 6-13). The network calls it opulent. Considering its year-long production schedule—400 shooting locations from Zagreb, Yugoslavia, to Washington state; TV debuts by Robert Mitchum and Ali MacGraw; and major roles for Jan-Michael Vincent, Polly Bergen, John Houseman, Peter Graves and David Duke—we figure that's an accurate brag. The script is adapted from Herman Wouk's Pulitzer Prize-winning account of the events that led up to World War II.

Also: Shogun (NBC, 12 hours, fall) will be rerun—this time with voice-overs in English.

In The Scarlet Pimpernel, (CBS) Anthony Andrews takes the role made famous by Leslie Howard and David Niven.

Peter O'Toole re-creates that hypnotizing Hungarian Svengali (CBS) with Jodie Foster as his Trilby.

Fact-Based

See television larger than life

M 2015

By Judith Crist

Lookin' good again, this network-movie season has "Kramer vs. Kramer," "Being There," "Melvin and Howard," "Starting Over," "Coal Miner's Daughter," the one and original "Private Benjamin," "Raging Bull," "The Rose," "Dressed to Kill," "The China Syndrome" and "The Cheap Detective" among its promised pleasures. And once again, that's only the half of it.

The three networks are announcing a total of 42 new theatrical features for the season (two of them promised last year but not yet shown). These will, of course, be supplemented by made-for-television films (see "Specials," page 6) and theatrical films on cable (see page 86). But judging by past performance, there's more to come. Last season we were promised 58 premieres (one was added just as the season began); by season's end we had had 120, 84 in prime time, 22 shown as late movies and 14 on PBS, which last year, like this one, announced no theatricals ahead of time. And 12 announced films have yet to be shown.

Moviewatchers will again have four movie nights (for theatricals and made-for-TV movies as well): NBC will show them on Sunday and Monday; ABC on Sunday and, when the baseball season ends, Monday; and CBS will be the loner on Tuesday and Saturday.

ABC, which last year announced 20 new movies and delivered 37, five as late movies, has a list of 16 for this season, with some topnotchers on hand. 1979's Oscar-laden Kramer vs. Kramer, that sophisticated contemporary domestic drama that brought fathering into fashion, heads the list. Writer-director Robert Benton, superbly abetted by Dustin Hoffman and Meryl Streep, all three Oscar winners along with the film, provides a deeply compassionate consideration of parenthood, of personal fulfillment and of the sexism inherent in our social and judicial view that mothers are best equipped to rear the young. Ex-husbanding—or the plight of the "unmarried" man—is considered in Alan J. Pakula's 1979 Starting Over, with Burt Reynolds, Candice Bergen and Jill Clayburgh contributing to the delightful romantic comedy evolving from those post-divorce blues. And remarriage, sparked by glittery lines in Neil Simon's autobiographical 1979 Chapter Two, provides Marsha Mason with a fine role as a woman fighting for the happiness she wants from James Caan, as a widower whose first wife is too much with him.

Sissy Spacek's 1980 Oscar-winning portrait of country singer Loretta Lynn is on hand in Coal Miner's Daughter, with Spacek, Tommy Lee Jones, as Lynn's husband, and Beverly D'Angelo, as singer Patsy Cline, providing the sparkle in the grit of this what-price-success story. The grit of nuclear perils is dealt with in thriller terms in 1979's The China Syndrome, with Jane Fonda a probing reporter, Michael Douglas her cameraman and Jack Lemmon quite wonderful as a nuclear-energy-plant supervisor. The movie was released 12 days before the Three Mile Island nuclear-power-plant "accident"—and remains as topical today in its projection of the terrifying possibilities of private interests superseding the public good. Robert Redford's an uncompromising prison warden bent on reform in 1980's fact-based Brubaker. And Redford and Fonda team up to delight us with still another tale of the cowboy and the lady in Sydney Pollack's 1979 The Electric Horseman, a softly satiric comedy with Valerie Perrine and Willie Nelson among its laid-back pleasures. More comedy's on hand, offbeat and compassionate, in Jonathan Demme's 1980 Melvin and Howard, with Jason Robards as Howard Hughes; Paul Le Mat as the filling-station attendant who was an alleged heir; and Mary Steenburgen an Oscar winner as his twice-and-former wife. And it's hilarious and affectionate in Neil Simon's 1978 homage to Bogey movies via The Cheap Detective, with Peter Falk and a host of other talents—Ann-Margret, Eileen Brennan, James Coco, Madeline Kahn, Phil Silvers, Abe Vigoda among → them—all very straight-faced and very funny.

So much for the toppers. For Clint Eastwood fans and admirers of tough-action flicks, 1979's Escape from Alcatraz describes just that, with Clint and three buddies preparing for an escape and three accomplishing it. For "Smokey and the Bandit" fans, the 1980 sequel, Smokey and the Bandit II is a rip-off, clunky and contrived, with Burt Reynolds and Sally Field—would you believe?—unappealing and obnoxious. Proof that money doesn't buy quality comes with 1980's The Blues Brothers, a $30-million-plus ele-reruns and wait for the 1982 sequel, "Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan." In the meantime, ABC is promising repeats of Jaws, Jaws 2, Grease, Norma Rae and The Sting.

CBS, which last season announced 20 premieres and had 44, 17 as late movies, runs the quality gamut with its 13 planned for this season. Starting at the top, we find Hal Ashby's 1979 Being There, a vastly entertaining and deeply moving contemporary fable with a screenplay by Jerzy Kosinski based on his own novel. Peter Sellers, in his perhaps most subtly realized role, is superb as the simple-minded near-recluse who is thrust into the world in middle age and becomes one of the inheritors of the earth. Melvyn Douglas, Shirley MacLaine and Jack Warden share the acting honors. In contrast to this elegant and understated film, there's Martin Scorsese's 1980 Raging Bull, a tough, streetwise and brutal biography of Jake La Motta, with Robert De Niro in a powerhouse performance that captures the grossness, swinishness and sadism of that middleweight prizefighter. The power of performance is brought to tornado force in Mark Rydell's 1979 The Rose, with Bette Midler making a stunning dramatic debut as a hard-rock singer living out her raw-nerved life in a series of concerts, last-chance grabs at relationships and last stabs at fighting drugs. Alan Bates, as her manager, and Frederic Forrest, as a lunkishly sweet boy friend, are also noteworthy.

The Motion Picture, watch the TV-series

Raise your hand if you're Sure.

Feelin' dry and secure.

Recruit Goldie Hawn gets a pointer from hard-nosed officer Eileen Brennan in "Private Benjamin."

For comedy, the CBS topper is, of course, Howard Zieff's 1980 Private Benjamin, with Goldie Hawn the ultimate Jewish Princess, Army volunteer and deliciously common-sensical New Woman. And she's still a sex kitten. Eileen Brennan, Robert Webber, Armand Assante and Barbara Barrie are also on hand in this semitransitional tradition-busting service comedy. And without the aid of a chimpanzee, Clint Eastwood is delightfully funny in his 1980 Bronco Billy, a pleasing diversion about an ex-shoe salesman who has himself a rodeo show, complete with Sondra Locke as a runaway heiress who joins him. Furthermore, while it's no "Love at First Bite," George Hamilton's very funny both as the populist avenger and his "swishbuckling" twin in 1981's Zorro, The Gay Blade, wherein he's abetted by Lauren Hutton, Brenda Vaccaro and Ron Leibman.

The idea's funnier than the execution in Robert Aldrich's 1979 The Frisco Kid, with Gene Wilder a Polish rabbi sent in 1850 to take over a San Francisco congregation and helped in his transcontinental travails by good-hearted outlaw Harrison Ford. No pretensions and common experience—who hasn't been up against a bully in his youth?—are the basic charm of Tony Bill's 1980 My Bodyguard, with Chris Makepeace the put-upon kid and some intelligent-seeming adults around. And if you squint your eyes—or mind—you can find bright grown-up fun in 1980's Nothing Personal, with Donald Sutherland, Suzanne Somers' 5000-watt smile and Robert Kaufman's story of a professor and lady lawyer out to save some endangered seals. Do the same with Franklin J. Schaffner's 1981 Sphinx, an incoherent yarn about lost tombs, crooked antique dealers and a brave, gorgeous, ambitious Egyptologist (Lesley-Ann Down)—but it is, oddly, not boring.

For wasted talents, there's Martin Ritt's 1981 Back Roads, where we are assured again that prostitutes (Sally Field at her gutsiest prat-fallingest) have hearts of gold and that broken-down prizefighters (Tommy Lee Jones) are the guys to assess their value. Then there's the entrapment of Shirley MacLaine, Susan Sarandon and James Coburn in Jack Smight's 1980 Loving Couples, wherein we're told that nothing refreshes a marriage so much as some intergenerational adultery. And Richard Fleischer's 1980 The Jazz Singer, the second remake of the 1927 Al Jolson sudser, simply proves (a) that Neil Diamond's not an actor and (b) that reheating old chestnuts doesn't improve them. But CBS does promise that this season it will offer 1980's The Idolmaker, announced last year, with Ray Sharkey memorable as a tough starmaker of the '50s rock era.

NBC, which last season announced 13 premieres and wound up with 25, is promising us 11 this season—plus a holdover from last, 1980's Hopscotch, a delightful anti-CIA caper with Walter Matthau and Glenda Jackson that few of the network's new offerings can hold a candle to. Variety is the keynote of the NBC selections, with "star" presence rather than quality the hallmark.

Two first-class 1980 crime films are the toppers. For the strong of stomach and nerve (although there will be some doctoring, no doubt, for TV), Brian De →

Palma's Dressed to Kill is a dazzler, inspired, in part, by "Psycho," with sex, scares and gore galore. Angie Dickinson as a frustrated housewife, Michael Caine as her psychiatrist, Keith Gordon as her very bright son and Nancy Allen as an innocent bystander are all excellent—as are the red herrings. Brian Hutton's The First Deadly Sin, with Frank Sinatra ending a 10-year absence from film as a New York City homicide cop, is an interesting and complex film, with the moralities of of the '30s, with Goldie Hawn delicious as the Irene Dunne character, Charles Grodin as her second-husband Ralph Bellamy-type and Chevy Chase her mad-cap, buffoonish ex-husband—the Cary Grant type? For dreary domesticity, Richard Lang's 1980 A Change of Seasons offers Anthony Hopkins and Shirley MacLaine as a mature couple who turn to young lovers with unpleasant results, wasting the talents of Hopkins and MacLaine and the looks (no talents visible) of Bo Derek. For domesticity of the "Intermezzo" variety (husband strays with young thing but returns to the fold), it's country-style in On the Road Again, released in 1980 as "Honey-suckle Rose" but renamed for TV for the Willie Nelson song that won an Oscar nomination. Willie Nelson fans will find him irresistible as the rambling singer, though even they may not believe his marriage to Dyan Cannon or affair with young Amy Irving.

Youngsters hold center stage in several movies. In Ronald F. Maxwell's 1980 Little Darlings, Tatum O'Neal and Kristy McNichol, as summer-camp 15-year-olds, make a bet about losing their virginity. In 1980's Oh, God! Book II, the five writers who concocted this insulting sequel to that fine George Burns vehicle have made a cute 10-year-old girl the earthly communicant for Burns' deity.

On an intellectually and socially higher level, 1980's Touched by Love deals honestly with handicapped youngsters in its focus on a teen-aged cerebral palsy victim who is befriended by Elvis Presley. The film's story is fact-based. And other aspects of Presley's personal and professional life are dealt with in 1981's This Is Elvis, a mix of fact and fiction that is sparked by some electric footage of various performances and newsreel glimpses of Presley's self-revelation, of major interest to even nondevotees. END police work pitted against those of the medical profession (Faye Dunaway is Sinatra's hospitalized wife)—all within the framework of a hunt for a homicidal psychopath.

So much for violent fare. On the exotic side, Randal Kleiser's 1980 The Blue Lagoon, based on a 1903 novel about two child castaways, works as a survival story, a South Seas adventure and, of course, a consideration of emotional and physical love, with Brooke Shields and Christopher Atkins earning their status as teen-age idols. Dino De Laurentiis's $22-million 1979 Hurricane doesn't offer as much romance (between Mia Farrow and a Samoan chap) but it does offer a 25-minute storm.

On the domestic front, Neil Simon's 1980 Seems Like Old Times attempts to capture the mood of the Cary Grant farces

ALL CALORIES ARE NOT CREATED EQUAL

Most of us think of calories as being all bad. They're not. You need the energy they provide.

However, some foods provide more nutrients with their calories than others and work harder for you nutritionally.

In other words, some foods have more nutrients per calorie than others.

And soup is one of those foods.

SOUPED-UP CALORIES

Most Campbell's Soups are dense in nutrients, so you get a higher level of nutrition with fewer calories than you get from many other foods.

MORE NUTRIENTS IN SOUP CALORIES

Because of their nutritionally hard-working calories, many Campbell's Soups are more nutritious than other good foods. Calorie for calorie, Campbell's Tomato Soup has more Vitamin C than carrots or apricots.

Campbell's Vegetable Soups are excellent sources of Vitamin A. Campbell's Minestrone, for instance, has more Vitamin A per calorie than eggs.

And some Campbell's Soups supply other recognized, but less well-known nutrients called "trace elements" which the body needs in small but essential amounts to function properly.

So get the benefit of the hard-working calories in Campbell's Soups, with an added dividend. The calories in Campbell's Soups taste great!

Pour 2 ounces of Southern Comfort over ice in a tall glass, add orange juice, stir gently and enjoy.

This will be a season for getting married, getting pregnant and having babies. On shows returning this fall, there's nary a sign of the much-discussed decline of the American family. There is, instead, The Greatest American Hero (William Katt), who weds his attorney (Connie Sellecca). In addition, there's Shirley (Cindy Williams) of Laverne & Shirley, who marries a medic on overseas duty and then learns that she's pregnant. There's also Barbara (Valerie Bertinelli) of One Day at a Time, who weds her boy friend Mark. Barbara's sister Julie (Mackenzie Phillips) adds to the hilarity by having a baby. So does Muriel Rush (Nancy Dussault) of Too Close for Comfort. Likewise Mae Murphy (Katherine Cannon) of Father Murphy. It's boom time in Hollywood for actors who play obstetricians.

But it's not just babies. New relatives of other descriptions are also being added to TV families. On Falcon Crest, David Selby, who played Michael Tyrone on Flamingo Road, turns up as the illegitimate son of Angie Channing's late ex-husband. Got that? Victor French returns to Little House as a regular, playing the Ingalls' surrogate father. The actual father, Michael Landon, is leaving his role to devote full time to producing. Melissa Gilbert, who'll now be the star of the show, also gets a niece, played by Shannen Doherty. Michael Landon's daughter, Leslie, will be the new schoolteacher.

Muriel of Too Close for Comfort gets a mother, played by Audrey Meadows. And Gordon Thomson joins Dynasty, claiming to be the long-lost son of Blake and Alexis. Then, if fathers, mothers, sons and nieces aren't enough, there also will be cousins. The Dukes of Hazzard adds two of them, Coy and Vance, played by Byron Cherry and Christopher Mayer. Not surprisingly, the actors chosen for the roles have a strong family resemblance to Tom Wopat and John Schneider. Sonny Shroyer is also coming back to Dukes to help the sheriff with his bumbling.

On Happy Days, the Fonz (Henry Winkler) becomes involved with the divorced mother of a small daughter. Mother and daughter are played by Linda Purl and Heather O'Rourke.

Job changes, uniformed division, include Private Benjamin (Lorna Patterson), who is transferred out of the infantry and into Army public affairs. She's joined there by a new recruit, staff photographer Stacy Kouchalakas (Wendie Jo Sperber). Two new officers, Tom Reilly and Tina Gayle, sign up with CHiPs. Gayle is a former Dallas Cowboy cheerleader.

There are job changes among TV's civilians, too. On Love, Sidney, Sidney Shorr (Tony Randall) finds himself up against a hard-driving ad man, played by Chip Zien. And Markie Post becomes The Fall Guy's new bondswoman. She'll help Lee Majors with his bailing. (END)

DAYTIME

The battle for the hearts, minds and eyes of daytime viewers is heating up this fall, with the networks rolling out new cartoons, after-school children's specials, news programs, game shows and, of course, some perverted new storylines on the soaps.

In children's television, last season was the year of the Smurfs; but this fall ABC and CBS are marshaling their forces to do battle with NBC's little blue trollkins. Into the Saturday-morning fray ABC is sending the redoubtable Pac-Man, an animated series adapted from the immensely popular video game. As the security guard for the Power Pellet Forest, Pac-Man (whose "voice" will be comedian Marty Ingels) must contend with a raspy-voiced villain, Mezmaron, and his henchmen, Inky, Blinky, Pinky and Clyde.

CBS joins the Saturday-morning attack with three new animated comedy-and-adventure series: Gilligan's Planet (those lovable castaways blast off the island on a homemade rocket, only to become marooned in outer space); Pandamonium (talking pandas and their human teen friends combat the evil alien Mondragorr); and Meatballs & Spaghetti (a rotund musician named Meatball tours with his skinny singer wife, Spaghetti). Also showing up on Saturday and Sunday mornings is Captain Kangaroo, who has hopped over to the weekend kids' ghetto to avoid being crushed by an expanded CBS news machine.

Smurfs may be only 3 apples tall, but they're not taking the competition lying down. The show will be expanded from 60 to 90 minutes, and will incorporate new characters such as two boys who live in a kingdom on the edge of the Smurf forest. To further build up its arsenal, NBC will introduce three new animated Saturday shows: The Gary Coleman Show (Gary as a guardian angel); The Shirt-Tales (comedy-mystery based on Hallmark-card characters); and The Incredible Hulk (the comic-book character once again in cartoon form, this time animated).

In addition to their weekend morning shows, all three networks are planning children's daytime specials. On Saturdays at noon (ET), ABC Weekend Specials will feature 10 new programs. Among them: "The Haunted Mansion Mystery," a two-parter about a boy and a girl trying to find a missing millionaire and his treasure; "The Littles," also a two-parter, based on the best sellers featuring 6-inch characters who live in normal-size houses; and The Secret World of Og, a three-part animated adventure based on Canadian Pierre Berton's best seller about children who discover a fantastic underground world. This season's new ABC Afterschool Specials include: "Amy and the Angel" (Sept. 22), in which a teen angel tries to talk a girl out of suicide; "Sometimes I Don't Love My Mother" (Oct. 13), concerning a young girl who must cope with her father's death and her mother's sudden dependence on her; "Between Two Loves" (Oct. 27), about two competing young violinists who become romantically involved; and "But It's Not My Fault" (March 2), a story of crime and punishment, as experienced by a young purse snatcher.

CBS weighs in with new productions on its CBS Afternoon Playhouse. In one, "Help Wanted," Kevin Dobson plays an unemployed auto worker whose plight becomes his family's. Another, "Just Pals," deals with the change in a boy and girl's relationship as they cross over into adolescence. On CBS Field Trip, CHiPs' Erik the night. CBS Morning News, anchored by Bill Kurtis and Diane Sawyer, will expand by a half hour (starting, depending on the affiliate, at 6 or 6:30 A.M. [ET]), to dovetail with the overnight news show.

Later in the morning on weekdays, CBS is hoping to build ratings by offering a two-hour block of game shows, starting with The $25,000 Pyramid at 10 A.M. The program began as The $10,000 Pyramid on CBS in 1973, then upped the ante when it switched to ABC. Now it's back at CBS in a similar format, with Dick Clark continuing as host.

Another familiar face, that of Bill Cullen, will be seen on a new CBS game show, Child's Play. Although intended for adults, the heart of the program will be kids between the ages of 6 and 8, who will give their own "darnedest" definitions for everyday words. The grown-up contestants will try to identify—just from the definitions—what the words are.

NBC will be launching a new weekday show called Fantasy, with veteran game-show personality Peter Marshall as host. The program will center on the fantasies and dreams of ordinary folks, and will include a "family" of performers.

Finally, the soaps. All My Children (ABC) will give more scope to mischief-maker Stephen Jacobi (played by Dack Rambo). On Another World (NBC), Blaine (Laura Malone) will go mad and be taken by Sandy (Chris Rich) to Wyoming to recover. On Days of Our Lives (NBC), a robot will figure in the plot; and the relationship between Marlena (Deidre Hall) and Roman (Wayne Northrop) will turn iffy with the return of Roman's wife. General Hospital (ABC) will plunge Edward Quartermaine (David Lewis) up to his ears in an oil scam. And don't be surprised if Maeve Ryan (Helen Gallagher) of Ryan's Hope (ABC) begins behaving like a "liberated" woman. (END)

Pac-Man gobbles after the evil Mezmaron Saturdays on ABC.

Estrada and Lou Grant's Linda Kelsey are virtually typecast as they visit the worlds of "The Police Officer and the TV Reporter." Famous Classic Tales will offer an animated version of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn." Among The CBS Library's new productions is "The Wrong Way Kid," whose moral is that it's normal (and OK) to make an occasional mistake while growing up. And The Body Human will return this season with a show about drugs.

NBC will chime in with new late-afternoon Special Treats; specific programs are to be announced later in the season.

This fall, CBS's marathon-length Nightwatch will broadcast news and information starting at 2 A.M. and running through

EARLY STARTERS

Joanie Loves Chachi

Joanie loves Chachi, all right, but not as much as ABC loves this series—a Happy Days spinoff that was (a) an instant hit with viewers or (b) the beneficiary of canny scheduling or (c) both. It follows the romance between Joanie Cunningham (Erin Moran) and Chachi Arcola (Scott Baio) as they hold hands, quarrel, break up, make up, move to Chicago and develop their act as a singing duo. Al Molinaro and Ellen Travolta also star as Al and Louisa Delvecchio; Art Metrano plays Uncle Rico. ABC, Thursday. Pictured (l.-r.): Scott Baio, Erin Moran.

T.J. Hooker

William Shatner stars in this police drama as Sgt. T.J. Hooker, a seasoned cop who chooses to return to the uniformed beat. He's teamed with a rookie partner, Vince Romano (Adrian Zmed). If Hooker tends to be tough on Vince, that's because Hooker's previous partner was killed in a shooting. Other regulars are Richard Herd as Captain Sheridan, Heather Locklear as Tracy Sheridan and Lee Bryant as T.J.'s ex-wife, Fran. ABC, Saturday. Pictured (l.-r.): Heather Locklear, William Shatner, Adrian Zmed.

9 to 5

The feature film with Jane Fonda, Dolly Parton and Lily Tomlin is now a TV series—without Jane, Dolly or Lily. Valerie Curtin, Rachel Dennison (Dolly's sister) and Rita Moreno star as the three secretaries who are, needless to say, smarter, more competent and altogether nicer than the boss, Franklin Hart Jr. (Peter Bonerz), who is, naturally, an inept, sexist pig. Valerie isn't as famous as Jane and Rita isn't as funny as Lily, but Rachel appears to be just as convex as Dolly. ABC, Tuesday. Pictured (l.-r.): Valerie Curtin, Rachel Dennison, Rita Moreno.

Cagney & Lacey

Cagney and Lacey are feminism's answer to Starsky and Hutch—a team of female police detectives who track down criminals on the streets while they battle chauvinists at the precinct house. In fact, they battle sexism everywhere: in one episode even the other cops' wives felt threatened by this gun-totin', crime-bustin' duo. And in another story, Cagney and Lacey, "whose lives embody the very spirit of the Equal Rights Amendment" (says a press release), find themselves saddled with the odious task of protecting a leading critic of the feminist movement. Tyne Daly plays Mary Beth Lacey, a cop who's also a wife and mother. Sharon Gless replaces Meg Foster as Chris Cagney, who's single, attractive and a crack shot. CBS, Monday. Silver Spoons

Edward Stratton III likes Pac-Man, pinball machines and electric trains. Ricky Stratton is mature, sensible and understands computers. So far so good. But Edward (Joel Higgins) is in his 30s, while son Ricky (Ricky Schroder) is 12. You have now grasped the entire premise of Silver Spoons. Edward is very rich. He also talks like Goofy, has the brains of a speed bump and lives in a mansion furnished by Santa Claus. In the pilot episode, his fortune has been siphoned off through computer chicanery by a scheming business manager while Edward was playing with his choo-choo trains. Along comes Ricky, who spots the scam and restores Daddy’s bucks. The other baby sitters include Edward’s lawyer, Leonard (Leonard Lightfoot), and a pretty secretary, Kate (Erin Gray), who do what they can while we all wait for the day Edward grows up—a day that will live in infancy. SATURDAY

The Devlin Connection

This series was announced last year, then delayed when star Rock Hudson underwent heart surgery. In one episode, a swanky Hollywood jeweler is murdered because he possesses the legendary ring of King Solomon. Almost as exotic as storylines like that is the connection between Brian Devlin (Hudson) and Nick Corsello (Jack Scalia). Brian, a former military-intelligence officer, is now director of the Performing Arts Center in Los Angeles. Into his life comes Nick, 28, a young private eye who works as a racquetball pro at a health club when he isn't detecting. It turns out that Nick is Brian's son—a son he never knew he had. So Brian will use his connections to help Nick on his cases. The trick for Brian is to do that without letting Nick know he's doing it. The trick for Nick is to keep his mind on his work—and that's not easy with all those lovelies in leotards breathing hard. NBC Pictured (l.-r.): Rock Hudson, Jack Scalia

Ripley's Believe It Or Not!

Every season there are some new shows that strike viewers as bizarre, even though the producers didn't plan it that way. Here's one that makes no bones about it: Ripley's Believe It Or Not! will try its darndest to bring you the strangest stuff it can find. The series is based on the syndicated newspaper feature created in 1918 by the late Robert L. Ripley, who was fascinated by man-eating clams, fish that swam backwards and a statue embellished with the sculptor's own hair, teeth and nails. The TV series continues in that grand tradition, offering up such wonders as a man who keeps a pet cow in his Manhattan apartment and—sweet memories of blind dates—a contest for the Ugliest Dog in the World. The host is Jack Palance, who has played Mr. Scarface and Attila the Hun in the movies and is not easily intimidated by man-eating clams. ABC. Pictured: Jack Palance.

Voyagers!

A philosopher once speculated that the whole face of the world would have been changed if Cleopatra's nose had been shorter. He might have approved of this series, a historical science-fantasy for younger viewers. Phineas Bogg (Jon-Erik Hexum) is a Voyager: "We're the people plucked out of time, to travel through the ages, kinda help history along." By dialing a date on his trusty Omni, a compass-sized time machine, Phineas can find himself at the Boston Tea Party or smack in the middle of World War I. He meets up with Jeffrey Jones (Meeno Peluce), an 11-year-old orphan. The two guys will have some splendid adventures as they help Eddie Rickenbacker fight the Red Baron, lend a hand to the Wright brothers and generally make sure the past has the right future. Sooner or later, no doubt, they'll bump into Cleopatra. Let's hope she doesn't need a nose job. NBC. Pictured (l-r): Jon-Erik Hexum, Meeno Peluce.

Matt Houston

The private eye is back in style this season, and they don't come any more stylish than Matt Houston (Lee Horsley), a free-wheeling millionaire whose passions include horses, cars, women and Texas chili. When he's not dabbling in oil wells, soybean futures and diamond mines, Houston devotes himself to his hobby—playing detective when his friends are in trouble. He has a lot of friends; fortunately, one of them will be in trouble every week. He's aided by C.J. Parsons (Pamela Hensley), his lawyer and right-hand person; Lt. Vince Novelli (John Aprea), a friendly cop with a mother (Penny Santon) whose idea of a snack runs to seven courses; and Baby, a computer the Pentagon should know about. He's nagged by Murray (George Wyner), a gimlet-eyed business manager who's always complaining about Houston's costly hobby. Not to worry, Murray, Houston—and Aaron Spelling (Charlie's Angels, Hart to Hart, The Love Boat)—can afford it. ABC. Pictured (l-r.): Pamela Hensley, Lee Horsley.

Gloria Sally Struthers returns to series television as Gloria Bunker Stivic, Archie Bunker's Little Gail—or, if you prefer, the former Mrs. Meathead. Now separated and with an 8-year-old son, Joey (Christian Jacobs), Gloria finds a job in upstate New York. She'll work for a small-town veterinarian, Dr. Willard Adams (Burgess Meredith), a crusty old codger who likes all creatures great and small—it's their owners he can't stand. While she learns to deal with dogs, cats, chimps and cockatoos, Gloria will also find ways to help Clark Uhley (Lou Richards), her fellow worker, a handsome bachelor who loves animals—but they only bark and spit at him. She also must learn to like Dr. Adams' staunchly feminist partner, Dr. Maggie Lawrence (Jo de Winter), who hopes to inherit the practice when the old curmudgeon retires—if he ever does. CBS. The Screening Room Previews of noteworthy series and specials by TV GUIDE programming editors. For movie choices, see 'This Week's Movies,' by Judith Crist, in this section.

A week that offers a lot to tennis fans also brings us an old reliable (the Miss America Pageant) with a new wrinkle, the return of a favorite from "the golden age of television" and the final edition of Lou Grant.

SATURDAY. A hundred years ago, when Richard Sears won the second of his seven consecutive United States tennis championships, he may have had an advantage today's stars don't enjoy (the defending titlist got a bye to the next year's final round), but he certainly didn't receive the exposure his descendants get: this weekend, CBS is devoting 10 hours to the U.S. Open—seven today (beginning at 12 noon), for action that's highlighted by men's semifinals and the women's final; and three tomorrow (starting at 4 P.M.) for the men's final. . . . Back in the 1950s, one of the standouts on the NBC schedule was Texaco Star Theater, a vaudeville-style variety series showcasing the talents of Milton Berle, Jimmy Durante and Donald O'Connor. Tonight at 8:30, Star Theater returns to the network as a projected occasional series of specials. This evening's stylishly staged salute to American musicals is headlined by 17 stars, including Ethel Merman, Carol Burnett, Sammy Davis Jr.—and O'Connor, who performs a slick version of the tongue-twisting "Trouble," from "The Music Man" . . . It's ironic that the theme of this year's Miss America Pageant (10 P.M. NBC; live to most areas) is "An American Tradition," inasmuch as the climactic song that traditionally greeted the new queen, "There She Is," has been discarded—three years after the sacking of emcee Bert Parks, who sang it for 25 years. Parks' successor, one-time "Tarzan" Ron Ely, had a shorter run; he's being replaced for tonight's affair by talk-show host Gary Collins. In any event, the show's real stars remain the contestants, who'll be vying for the 55th crown in Atlantic City, N.J.

SUNDAY. Gloria comes home—without the Meathead—as former All in the Family regular Sally Struthers makes a guest appearance on an Archie Bunker's Place rerun that sets the scene for her upcoming series, Gloria. It's a poignant hour-long show (8 P.M. CBS) that finds Archie's little girl single again—but hardly alone, as she struggles to get out from under the thumb of her well-meaning father.

MONDAY. The award-winning (and, once again this year, Emmy-nominated) Lou Grant ends its five-year CBS run tonight (10 P.M.) with a well-done—and first-run—outing in which managing editor Charlie Hume (Mason Adams) takes center stage. He's made to look like a chump in the eyes of his staffers after Mrs. Pynchon takes exception to his decision to fire a pair of problem reporters.

WEDNESDAY. Veteran superstar soprano Leontyne Price helps the New York Philharmonic kick off its 141st season with a Live from Lincoln Center concert (8 P.M. PBS; simulcast in some areas) that ranges from the lighthearted (an aria from Mozart's comic opera "Cosi Fan Tutte") to the darkly impassioned (Richard Strauss's melodramatic "Salome").

In some areas network shows may not be seen on the days and at the times indicated. Times are Eastern.

TV Update

WASHINGTON-BALTIMORE EDITION

Westmoreland Won't Be on Panel for CBS Vietnam Sequel

New York—Gen. William Westmoreland will not participate in CBS's sequel to its controversial documentary "The Uncounted Enemy: A Vietnam Deception," according to a source close to the general. "In view of what's going on, there is absolutely no sense in General Westmoreland's pursuing a debate with CBS on a new show," explained the source. "CBS called him a traitor; they said he conspired. The general would be crazy to deal with another broadcast in light of what CBS has already done." The source added that Westmoreland plans to file a multimillion-dollar libel suit against CBS within the next few weeks.

On Sept. 15, CBS intends to broadcast a follow-up program on the issues raised in the original documentary. It will be an hour-long panel discussion in prime time. The sequel is, in part, a result of an internal CBS investigation (in response to a TV GUIDE article) that concluded that the original documentary had violated some of the network's standards for fairness and accuracy. It portrayed General Westmoreland as the leader of a conspiracy to underestimate the strength of enemy forces during the Vietnam War.

Westmoreland was offered the opportunity to appear on the new show, according to a senior CBS News executive. He then made certain demands, outlined in a letter to CBS News president Van Gordon Sauter. Indications are that Westmoreland's chief demand was that he be given access to CBS's report on its investigation into the original program.

Participants in the CBS panel discussion will probably include: Sam

Adams, a paid consultant on the original documentary; George Carver, a CIA official during the period examined by the documentary; Col. Gains Hawkins, a Vietcong expert; and Gen. Phillip Davidson, the military's chief intelligence officer in Vietnam.

The broadcast, to be called "Perspective: Counting the Enemy in Vietnam," will be opened by a CBS correspondent summarizing the original documentary. Although the participants have agreed to be questioned by a panel of reporters, they will not be given an opportunity to present opening statements. "It's like going down a road in a combat situation," said Gen-

PROGRAMMING NOTE

After the color section of this issue had gone to press, CBS announced a change in its schedule of new fall series. The network said that the debut of Mama Malone (p. 58) would be delayed. In its place on Wednesday nights will be Filthy Rich, a half-hour series that premiered in August and garnered high ratings. Filthy Rich is a comedy about the feud that ensues when the wealthy, aristocratic heirs of a Tennessee land baron are forced (by the terms of his videotaped will) to welcome some poor relations into their home. A CBS spokesperson emphasized that 13 episodes of Mama Malone would be completed for future broadcast.

A 'NONWORKER'S VIEW OF TV

"America's Working Woman: Television Looks a Little Different Now" [Aug. 21] focused on "working women," as opposed to "their non-working counterparts." As one of those "non-working counterparts," I'd like to mention that I enjoy the daytime TV programs while putting in a 12-to-16-hour day "not working": through cleaning house, cooking meals, doing laundry, shopping, ironing, mopping, sewing and other "non-jobs." I enjoy the diversion that TV provides. TV does not keep me from adequately caring for my family, from reading several books a week, or from doing illustrations in my spare time—it entertains me.

Deborah L. Peeples
Milpitas, Cal.

[Ms. Peeples has a point. Instead of "non-working," we should have said "non-salaried." By comparison, salaried working women appear to have it a lot easier.—Ed.]

BIAS IN COURT: TWO CASES

A camera in the courtroom is fine if the defendant wants it there ["Cameras in Court: The Verdict Is Yes, But . . ." Aug. 14]. But those states that permit televising of cases give a prosecutor the ability to destroy a defendant (even if he hasn't convinced) a jury that the defendant is guilty of anything. A man falsely accused—and unanimously acquitted—of, say, child molesting will be remembered by thousands of his neighbors as "that guy who had something to do with child molesting." That's not fair.

S. Tompkins
New York

The People's Court is guilty of sex bias ["Charge: The Stripper Didn't Strip Enough. Verdict: Innocent," July 10]. Or at least the executive producer is, if we are to believe Stu Billett said that if a case is snooze-making but the girl is beautiful, he'll pick that one rather than another case with a less-than-foxy lady. I wish to go on record, as an avid fan of the program, that I deplore this attitude and I suspect most fans are like me. We're interested in cases, not faces!

HERO WORSHIP

As a devoted fan of both M*A*S*H and actor William Christopher ["The Quiet Crusades of Father Mulcahy," Aug. 21], I feel it's time that this gentle, caring and very talented man got a little of the recognition he so richly deserves. Alan Alda may be the backbone of M*A*S*H, but William Christopher is the heart.

Laura Leigh Dittman
Santa Maria, Cal.

... AND SOME HEAVY PRAISE

Here's to all the unsung character actors who dream of playing King Lear while they watch in frustration the countless "Dash Riprocks" who always get the girl and, worse, blow away the likes of Paul Mantee ["The Other Guy Always Gets the Girl—and the Designer Hair," Aug. 21]. If it means anything to this fine actor, there are those of us out here in viewerland who do appreciate and recognize the consistently solid performances in minor supporting roles, and who always watch the credits to learn the name of the guy who said, "First we gotta stash the body!" just before Dirk Dazzle sent a dozen runaway barrels his way. Paul Mantee especially should stand proud.

Donald K. McDonough
Haughton, La.

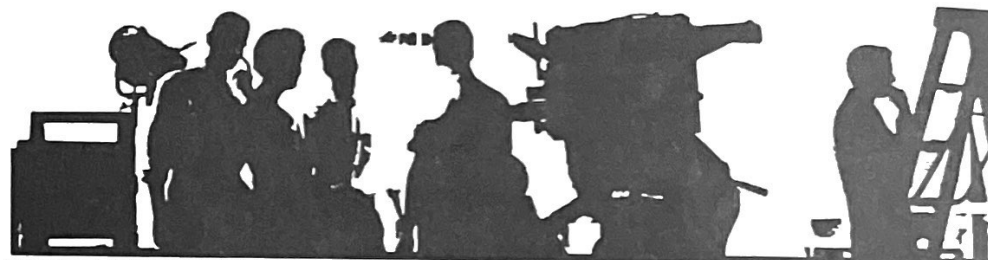

If it weren't for the gifted actors [who play heavies], TV's detective stories would be pretty dull and the hero wouldn't have much to do other than stand around and look good. Good-looking heroes are a dime a dozen, but a good meanie is hard to find. I do agree with Mantee, though, that a lot of the dialogue is laughable. I usually know what the guy is going to say ahead of time.

This Week's Movies By Judith Crist

Saturday, CBS	C.H.O.M.P.S.
Sunday, ABC	The Fog
Sunday, NBC	Skyward
Monday, NBC	Murder in Texas (Part 1)
Tuesday, CBS	Moonlight
Tuesday, NBC	Murder in Texas (Conclusion)
Wednesday, CBS	Firepower

Let's face it: one man's horror is another man's ho-hum, at least on screen. As with comedies, the horror movie is a matter of special taste—for the grotesque or the gruesome, the mummy or the monster, the ghosts or the golems, or simply the psychopaths who go bump in the night or, more deliciously, in broad daylight. Our preferences were set in childhood, by Frankenstein or Dracula or "House on Haunted Hill," or in a ghost-story session at a campfire when we were mesmerized by the account of the old sea captain's return from the dead with that scare-story chant of "Give me back my wooden leg."

There are not one but six corpses demanding the return of their wooden legs—in this case a stash of gold—in John Carpenter's The Fog. This 1980 theatrical movie evoked particular attention as the next film by Carpenter, whose earlier one, "Halloween," was a nifty little linear horror film, made in 1978 for $300,000, that grossed more than $55 million worldwide. Given four times the "Halloween" budget, Carpenter got himself big names—John Houseman, Adrienne Barbeau, Hal Holbrook, Janet Leigh, Jamie Lee Curtis—and a muddled plot. It starts out beautifully with a campfire ghost story, a horror at sea and a curse on a town; but before long we have Holbrook explaining the unexplainable, Barbeau describing the invisible, and more breakaway walls and furniture than any ghost should have to crash through. And finally—and unforgivably—we get a glimpse of the horror itself, and marinated leprosy turns out not to be as disgusting as we'd hoped.

Two other theatrical films bow this network-movie week, taken from the bottom of the barrels of their respective genres. 1979's C.H.O.M.P.S. (stands for Canine Home Protection System), is a tedious kiddy entertainment. Wesley Eure is an engineer who designs a mechanical watchdog to save Conrad Bain's failing security-system company; Valerie Bertinelli is Bain's daughter and Eure's beloved. The mechanical dog outacts them all but even he overdoes his shticks. 1979's Firepower is a thoroughly muddled adventure yarn set in the Caribbean (everybody wears sunglasses), involving Sophia Loren as a justice-seeking widow, James Coburn as an ex-hitman on her side and O.J. Simpson on his. It's chockablock with bad guys, burnings, bombings and bloodshed.

Two TV-movie repeats are more rewarding. 1980's Skyward is enriched by Bette Davis, Howard Hesseman and Suzy Gilstrap in its tale of a teen-age paraplegic who wants to fly a plane. And 1981's Murder in Texas is a grand wallow, with a first-rate cast dramatizing its gamey fact-based tale of lust, greed and homicide among the rich in Houston, who prove to be almost as rotten as the rich in Dallas.

The one unknown quantity is Moonlight, a TV-movie unavailable for preview, with Robert Desiderio as a Chinese-food deliveryman turned spy.

In some areas network movies may not be seen on the days indicated.

Presenting the no-down-payment no-surprises

$5.29 a week 19" TV

It's true. You can rent a brand name 19" color TV from Rentacolor and never pay another penny for worry-free TV viewing.

With Rentacolor, there's no security deposit, large down payment or financing charges, (since this is a lease—you simply make monthly, no-interest payments). And there's no charge for parts or labor, ever.

There's really nothing more convenient than TV rental, either. We make frequent checks to make sure your TV is working perfectly. If you need repairs, we provide instant in-home service. And if your TV can't be fixed, we provide a free replacement set on the spot. Your viewing is never interrupted or less than perfect for as long as you choose to rent. There's no option to buy, either (since who'd want to buy a used set, anyway). Instead, if you wish we'll replace your set with the latest model yearly.

At $5.29 a week, ($22.95 a month), it costs only $275.40 for 12 solid months of worry-free, uninterrupted viewing pleasure on a 19" color portable. And there's only a modest one-time $25 installation charge. You can save a little by renting a 13" color portable. You can also spend a little more by renting a 25" color console.

But no matter which size you choose, when it comes to economy, you can't do better than Rentacolor.

For full information on sizes, styles and prices, call your local Rentacolor representative.

Saturday: The women's singles final. Quite simply, no one is playing better tennis in 1982 than top seed Martina Navratilova. The winner of 64 of 65 matches this year (a loss in the Avon Championships is her only blemish); Navratilova would love nothing more than to capture the Open, the one major title that has eluded her. In fact, last year was the first time she even made it to the final. Out to stop her this time: second seed Chris Evert Lloyd, a five-time champ; defending titlist Tracy Austin, the third seed; and fourth seed, Andrea Jaeger.

Sunday: The men's singles final. Competing in his home town of New York could be just the tonic for number-one seed John McEnroe: he hasn't won a tournament since January's U.S. Pro Indoor. The defending U.S. Open champ's string of three consecutive titles (the best since Bill Tilden's six straight in the 1920s) is in jeopardy against a field that includes Wimbledon champ (and second seed here) Jimmy Connors, who has bested McEnroe three times this year; and number-three seed Ivan Lendl, a $1-million winner in '82.

Now on the Rotation Diet™
at 123 lbs. Goal: 115 lbs.

I'm Dot Woolslager. I'm thin for the first time since the kids came, and I know I'll never be fat again. I found the Rotation Diet, the only diet I've ever been able to live with.

Four days a week you eat whatever you like: pancakes, pastry or pizza, natural food or junk food. (My favorites are fettucini, cakes and Tia Marias.) And you eat as much as you like.

Three days a week you use Rotation Diet's special three-point program. And you can talk with a "Phonefriend", someone who will guide you every step of the way.

The best part of the Rotation Diet is what's not in it: •No drugs •No gadgets •No forbidden foods •No counting calories •No weighing portions •No fatigue.

To start looking the way you really want to, use the coupon or call for a free information packet, including phone numbers of present Rotation Dieters who can tell you about their experience.

It was unsettling enough when Bert Parks was yanked off the runway after celebrating his silver anniversary as Miss America Pageant emcee. Now, the song that has saluted the new Miss America for 27 years, "There She Is," has been dropped. "Nothing goes on forever," says the pageant's executive director Albert Marks Jr. And as far as hosts are concerned, he continues, "There'll be no more 25-year jobs." Parks' successor Ron Ely can confirm that: after two years, he's been replaced by talk-show host Gary Collins.

Still, some traditions remain, including the parade of contestants, the naming of the 10 semifinalists (who vie in evening-gown, swimsuit and talent events) and the crowning of the winner, who'll take her maiden stroll to "Miss America, You're Beautiful."

In addition, Marilyn McCoo sings "Out Here on My Own"; and joins Collins, reigning queen Elizabeth Ward, Miss America 1981 Susan Powell and 1973 winner Terry Meeuwsen in a production number entitled "Here's to the Ladies." (Live; 2 hrs.)

A different kind of punishment: convicted burglar John Tyler face-to-face with Mrs. Bena Rollo—one of his victims

GOING STRAIGHT
10 PM ⑨

ALTERNATIVES TO PRISON

Everyone agrees that criminals should be punished. But is prison the best solution? According to narrator George Kennedy, there are alternatives. They aren't for every criminal (and they may not always work), but they exist. This hour focuses on three case studies.

□ California teen-ager John Tyler, a convicted burglar, was ordered to make restitution to his victims, do unpaid community service and enter a drug program.

□ Joe Hennebury of Quincy, Mass., was ordered to make restitution to a gas-station operator he burglarized. And the county court even helped to find him a job.

□ More involved is the case of Harry Fred Palmer of Elkhart, Ind. Aided by a court-approved program that brings criminals face-to-face with their victims, Palmer (a Vietnam vet convicted of a string of burglaries) was working on a similar alternative sentence—until a local prosecutor, citing state law that demands incarceration, sent him back to prison. BALTIMORE
INTERNATIONAL
FILM FESTIVAL
10 PM 22 28 31 62 67

Avant-garde director John Waters ("Pink Flamingoes") screens seven outstanding short films from among the 150 that were entered in last spring's 13th annual Baltimore International Film Festival. (90 min.)

The Program

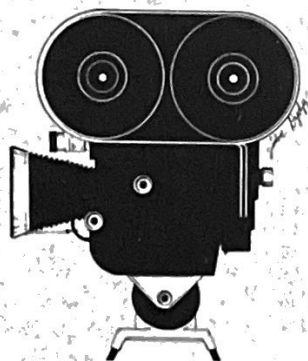

"An Original Jones," by San Francisco painter Tom Brozovich, is a witty satire on the world of artists and art dealers.

David Casci's "Extended Play" blends animation, live action and bad taste to tell of a video-games arcade where the war games actually fight back.

"The Creation" is an imaginatively animated version of the James Weldon Johnson poem; James Earl Jones narrates.

Deborah Jo Short's "A Bird's Eye View," only two minutes long, is a visually arresting animated fantasy.

"No Place to Hide" deals with the fears of a generation that grew up under the shadow of the A-bomb. Filmmakers Tom Johnson and Lance Bird have excerpted Government Civil Defense documentaries from the 1950s and '60s and set them to new narration, spoken by Martin Sheen.

Another animated fantasy, "Seepage," is described by filmmaker C. Henry Selick as a "glimpse into a Los Angeles-flavored dream/nightmare."

And finally, "Curious Phenomena" uses computer graphics to create just that.

A LONDON UNIVERSITY 'CRASH-BURN' DIET

FASTEST WEIGHT-LOSS METHOD KNOWN TO MEDICAL SCIENCE!

(EXCEPT FOR TOTAL STARVATION)

Compared to the Scarsdale Diet, Weight-Watchers, Duke Univ. even Atkins or Pritikin it burns away fat as much as:

4 TIMES FASTER THAN HIGH-SPEED DIETS
11 TIMES FASTER THAN EXERCISE!

MELTS DOWN FAT LIKE HOT WATER MELTS DOWN ICE!

Recently, America's leading consumer report magazine—in a special release—dropped a 'medical bombshell' on the entire weight-loss field that based upon their findings, demonstrates how a wondrous London University super crash-loss diet program burns away clinging pockets of flab up to 4 TIMES FASTER THAN EVEN THE MOST WORLD-FAMOUS DIETS... and even more startling... 10 to 20 TIMES FASTER THAN HOURS OF BRUTAL CALISTHENICS!

Yes, speeds up your body's rate of fat burn-off to such 'blast-furnace' intensity that in just the first 48 hours alone, melts away excess flab, fluid and fat at so staggering a rate of speed, you:

LOSE up to 1 lb. EVERY 8 HOURS

LOSE up to 1½ lbs. EACH DAY!

Yes, lose weight by the hour, carve away inches by the week... shrink down your waist as much as 4 inches smaller in JUST 14 DAYS!

GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL LOSES
10 POUNDS IN JUST 72 HOURS—

So effectively does this University crash-burn diet step up your system's rate of fat burn-off, that:

■ When tested at one of medical science's foremost research centers on scores of grossly overweight men and women... they lost as much as 7 lbs. of excess fat, flab and fluid IN JUST THE FIRST 72 HOURS ALONE, as much as another 3-5—even 7 POUNDS MORE the next 14 days!

■ Even more amazing... when tested not on ordinary overweight people but on the most extreme cases of obesity... IT EVAPORATED up to 10 POUNDS OF FAT, FLUID AND FLAB IN JUST 3 DAYS TIME!

AS MUCH AS 50% OF ALL EXCESS WEIGHT GONE IN JUST 14 DAYS!

■ But most mind boggling of all... when tested on average overweight people... who for years lugged around a 'spare tire' bulge of 10, 15 or even 20 extra sagging pounds... IT ACTUALLY MELTED AWAY AS MUCH AS 50% OF ALL EXCESS WEIGHT IN JUST 14 DAYS!

Yes, stepped up their body's rate of fat burn-off and melted away hard set fat over 10 TO 20 TIMES THE SPEED OF EVEN BRUTAL EXERCISE!

URNS YOUR ENTIRE BODY INTO A SUPER FAT-BURNING FURNACE!

In fact, based upon Calorie Burn-Off Research From California's Leading Medical School, the calorie-deficit created in your system by this 'crash-loss' high-burn program, (a staggering deficit of as much as 2,400 calories a day off required daily intake) works with such breathtaking speed you actually:

BURN AWAY FAT!

Up to 4 TIMES FASTER than running 20 to 25 miles a week!

Up to 4 to 7 TIMES FASTER than over 2 hours of sit-ups or push-ups a week!

Up to 15 to 22 TIMES FASTER than even a non-stop back-breaking half-hour of brutal weight-lift work-out!

WAKE UP SLIMMER THE VERY FIRST MORNING!

What is this clinically tested fat-destroyer crash-burn program that helps to burn away fat by the hour—carve away inches by the week? Briefly stated... it is a remarkably simple way to take special combinations of high-burn foods and create what doctors call a "hypo-caloric effect" to take place inside your body... that turns your system into a GIANT FAT BURNING MACHINE as you COMPLETELY STOP EXCESS fat-builder calories from entering your system... or being absorbed by your body and turned into fat like in the past! So obviously, down go the calories, up goes the rate of fat-burn-off and off come the pounds and inches at a rate that absolutely staggers the imagination!

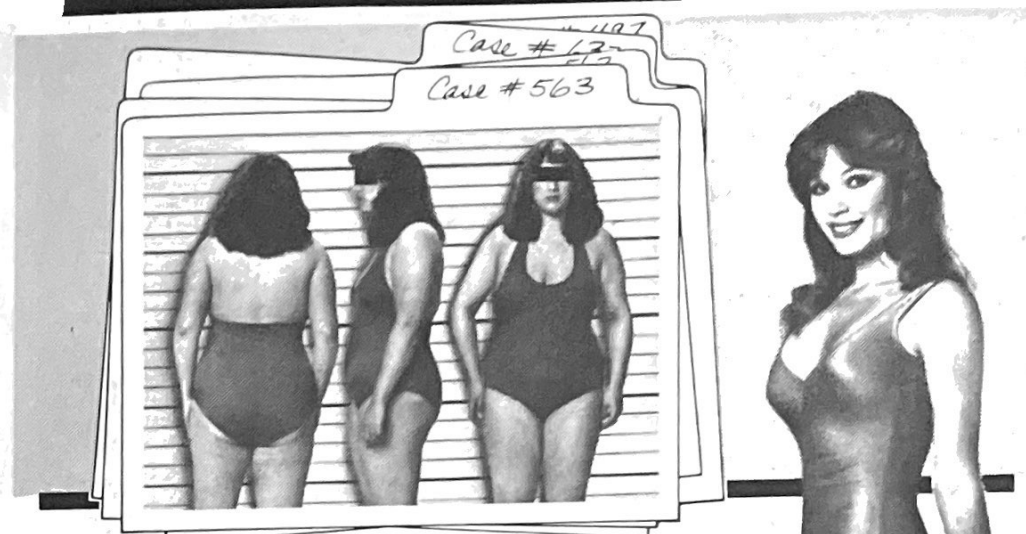

Yes, a TOTAL FAT-DESTROYER program that ACTUALLY SHRINKS YOUR BODY'S FAT CELLS starting in just hours... melts down even the most stubborn fatty bulges... so you lose weight like never before... LOSE IT BY THE HOUR... all starting the very first day. In fact, of all medically sound reducing programs, ONLY TOTAL STARVATION WORKS FASTER!

AMAZING "FURNACE-IN-A-CAPSULE" HELPS TRIGGER THE MOST DYNAMITE FAT-BURN SPREE OF YOUR LIFE!

IF YOU READ NOTHING ELSE, READ THIS

The program involves a high-speed crash-loss diet that lowers caloric intake essential to the reduction of body weight. Such results cannot be achieved solely through the use of the capsules. The more overweight you are, the higher caloric requirements, the more you have to lose, the faster you should lose it. Do not exceed recommended dosage. Before you start, check with your physician and make sure you are in normal health and your only problem is excess weight.

Like Growing A Brand New Body In Just 2 Weeks

World's Leading Medical Authority on Obesity Reports:
... AS MUCH AS 50% OF ALL EXCESS
FAT GONE IN JUST 14 DAYS!

Now comes the most exciting news of all. The release to the American public of a wondrous reducing-aid formula that works before meals to reduce hunger to help keep the program's "crash-loss" fat-burning chain-reaction going in your body non-stop all day long.

Called "Thera-dex/100" these clinically tested capsules turn down that maddening urge to eat, just like you dim down a light switch. Makes it easier to lower caloric intake so you safely, surely, TURN UP the level of your fat-burning metabolism after every time food enters your body on this London University crash-burn diet program.

Meaning the food you take in, the calories you enjoy are burned away by your own stepped-up metabolic system in as little as 2 to 3 hours after eating!

THE FOOD YOU EAT
NO LONGER TURNS TO FAT!

So, obviously, since it takes far less food to satisfy you, lowering calories is a lark. And since the calories you do take in on this "crash-loss" diet program are burned right out of your body after every time you eat... you start to TURN SLIMMER, not only the very first meal... BUT—every meal thereafter!

PROVE EVERY LOST OUNCE, EVERY LOST INCH—ENTIRELY AT OUR RISK

Right now, look at your figure in the mirror and ask yourself these questions—

How would I look one week from today as much as 5 to 10 pounds lighter?

How would I look in 2 weeks with my waistline 2 to 4 sizes smaller?

BUT DON'T STOP THERE—If you need to lose still more inches, then continue the University "crash-loss" diet, continue to take "Thera-dex/100" until you've reached the figure of your dreams:

6 INCHES CARVED OFF YOUR HIPS... UP TO ANOTHER 3 INCHES CARVED OFF YOUR THIGHS... ANOTHER 4 INCHES OFF YOUR BUTTOCKS... ANOTHER 6 INCHES OFF YOUR STOMACH... ANOTHER 6 INCHES OFF YOUR WAISTLINE!

Because NEXT TO STARVATION THERE IS SIMPLY NO OTHER MEDICALLY SOUND REDUCING PROGRAM THAT WORKS FASTER.

eral Davidson. "You keep wondering where in hell the ambush is going to come. That's the problem in dealing with CBS."

Washington—The Federal Election Commission has ruled that a broadcaster can offer free air time to political parties. The 5-1 FEC vote resulted from a controversy about a $100,000 donation by Ted Turner, owner of Atlanta station WTBS, to the Republican and Democratic national committees. The contribution was not in cash but in broadcast time. The current Federal Election Campaign Act forbids "any corporation whatever" from making campaign contributions in connection with federal elections. But the FEC decided that providing air time to political parties falls under an exemption from the law.

—John Weisman

Hollywood—Joan Collins, who plays the vampy Alexis Carrington on ABC's Dynasty, went to court to stop advertisements for a theatrical movie, "Homework," that showed her bare-breasted. Collins, whose nude body has been featured in Playboy magazine, maintains that another actress's body was substituted for hers in the advertisements. She was paid $25,000 for a small part in the film, which was made two years ago, and is only now being released. The actress also objects to being listed as the "star" of "Homework" without her permission. U.S. District Judge Irving Hill agreed with Collins and forbade the use of Collins' face with anyone else's body or "the depiction of Plaintiff Collins totally or substantially unclothed."

NFL FOOTBALL

REDSKINS AT EAGLES

Washington (8-8 in 1981): Coach Joe Gibbs' braves have the NFL's toughest schedule this year, playing nine games with '81 playoff teams. And Gibbs must face this gantlet with four starters in the offensive line and two wide receivers with less than three years pro experience. There is, however, plenty of know-how in the backfield: QB Joe Theismann (3568 yards passing in '81), RB John Riggins (a team-record 13 TDs rushing) and RB Joe Washington (1506 yards total offense in '81), who will miss the first few weeks with a knee injury.

Philadelphia (10-6): The Eagles' 3-4 defense was the NFL's stingiest—and toughest to score on—last year, but an inconsistent offense cost them their NFC title. This year, coach Dick Vermeil is hoping that rookie WR Mike Quick will be able to keep foes from double-teaming Harold Carmichael (61 receptions, 1028 yards). And, of course, there's RB Wilbert Montgomery, whose 1402 yards rushing in '81 leaves him just 765 yards short of Steve Van Buren's club-record 5860—in only five years.

SKYWARD

The dreams of a paraplegic infuse this "GE Theatre" movie with a love of life.

It flows from Julie Ward, a wheelchair-bound teen-ager who yearns to fly a plane. And she gets her chance at a ramshackle Texas airport, where a hard-boiled one-time stunt pilot named Billie Dupree (Bette Davis) takes to Julie's spunk—and takes her up in a specially rigged single-engine job. Picking up confidence at the controls, Julie soon exhibits a single-minded drive that leads to showdowns with her high-school boy friend, her overprotective parents and even Billie herself.

Cast as Julie, Suzy Gilstrap (an actual paraplegic) gives a sensitive performance in this drama, directed by Ron Howard and first telecast in 1980.

Koup: Howard Hesseman. Scott: Ben Marley. Ward: Clu Gulager. Mrs. Ward: Marion Ross. Lisa: Lisa Whelchel. (Repeat; 2 hrs.)

STEELERS AT COWBOYS

Pittsburgh (8-8 in 1981): Some familiar names may be missing (Joe Greene, Randy Grossman, L.C. Greenwood), but there are still a couple of guys left to remind opponents that this team won four Super Bowls in six years (1975-80). QB Terry Bradshaw (who missed the final two games last year with a broken hand) is coming off his best year statistically since 1975; while Franco Harris bounced back from a disappointing 1980 campaign to rush for 987 yards and catch 37 passes. Harris's running mate this year is expected to be rookie Walter Abercrombie, Baylor's all-time rushing king.

Dallas (12-4): RB Tony Dorsett enjoyed the best season of his five-year career last year (1646 yards rushing); QB Danny White again threw for over 3000 yards (and cut his interceptions nearly in half); and the defense set a club record for interceptions (37). Yet, if coach Tom Landry is going to make it to his sixth Super Bowl, he must shore a defense that also set club marks for yielding most net yards and passing yards in a 16-game season.

Are you hiding your last craft project in your closet? Or, is it proudly displayed in your home?

You can't make second rate materials or a badly constructed kit into a work of art.

If you've ever been disappointed, we guarantee you'll have better luck with a top quality Readicut latchet hook kit.

You'll make a beautiful rug, pillow or wall hanging you'll be proud to display, instead of hiding it in your closet. Here's why:

You create your Readicut rug on 100% fine English canvas which is hand-stencilled and stretched so carefully that every design sits perfectly. This means our designs are very easy to follow.

You work with our handcrafted latchet hook which we include in each kit. And with yarns we've spun and dyed in our own mills.

You choose either our pure new wool or our sturdy wool/nylon blends in a rainbow of 57 rich, radiant colors. You can even change colors to match your decor or desires.

Our direct to you service gives you the highest quality product at the lowest possible prices. And our service doesn't end with the sale. You can call our customer service representatives with any questions you may have. And above all you have the Readicut unconditional money-back guarantee of satisfaction.

The Readicut introductory catalog is YOURS FREE and with no obligation. It is illustrated in full color with magnificent rug, wall hangings and pillow cover kits. Mail in the coupon right now.

Bring 'Em Back Alive

"Bring 'Em Back Alive" was the motto of Frank Buck, legendary collector of the wild animals known in the title as 'em. And legendary is the word for this series, which the producer says is "not necessarily based on the career of Buck." So we're not sure how much he really had to do with Nazi saboteurs, foreign intrigue and caricatures of Peter Lorre, but you'll find those ingredients in this series. Besides the dashing Mr. Buck (Bruce Boxleitner), the regulars are the spunky Gloria Marlowe (Cindy Morgan) of the U.S. Consulate in Singapore; the faithful Ali (Clyde Kusatsu), Buck's "No. 1 boy"; the flamboyant H.H., the Sultan of Johore (Ron O'Neal), Buck's old pal; the stalwart Myles Delaney (Seán McClory), proprietor of the Raffles Hotel Bar, and the sinister G.B. VonTurgo (John Zee), kingpin of the Singapore underworld. If that's not enough, there are also lots of 'em. CBS. Pictured (l.-r.), Clyde Kusatsu, Bruce Boxleitner, Cindy Morgan and friends.

Gavilan

You have to give this series credit—it has something for everyone. For the men, there are gorgeous women in bikinis. For the women, there's Robert Urich in a wet suit. For environmentalists, there's a save-the-whales story. For kids, there are educational tidbits (plankton would be the perfect food—if only it tasted good). For fans of Vega$, there's the former Dan Tanna (Urich), getting even tanna here as Robert Gavilan, a former CIA agent who's now a consultant to an oceanographic institute. For fun, there's Fernando Lamas as a roguish Latin aristocrat forced into exile. For good-natured aggravation, there's Kate Reid as Mrs. Marion Jaworski, the institute's director, who makes sure Gavilan earns his fee. And for everyone, there's adventure—underwater thrills, motorboat chases, even sword-carrying Japanese assassins. How'd they get here? We'll never tell. But they'd like to turn Gavilan into sushi. NBC. Pictured: Robert Urich.

St. Elsewhere

This series has been described as "Hill Street Blues in a hospital." It's not a bad description: St. Elsewhere is a large-cast medical drama from MTM Enterprises that blends realism, humor and pathos with moments of stark terror. The name of the Boston hospital is really St. Eligius, but everybody calls it St. Elsewhere—"a dumping ground," says one surgeon, "a place you wouldn't send your mother-in-law." The ensemble includes Ed Flanders, David Birney, David Morse, G.W. Bailey, Cynthia Sikes and 11 other regulars as doctors, nurses and staffers. Let's look in on a typical day, shall we? A patient with a history of mental illness is missing. A burly dock worker has a doctor by the throat. Victims of a terrorist's bombing are being wheeled into the emergency room. And two residents are making love in the morgue. Hey—let's be careful in there. NBC.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined
That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

The Road to Raleigh is:

Yellow lines and just laid asphalt.
Endless stretches of black ribbon that run all the way to where the sun disappears.
It's telephone poles and fence posts,
you keep passin' 'em one by one.
It's those rows of corn, that sea of wheat.
Tall trees blocking out the sun.
It's 13 speeds in an overdrive gearbox.

And a CB handle
when you've got the country music turned off.
The road to Raleigh is a man who gets up when he wants to...
goes to bed when he says.
Pushes himself to the limit and then relaxes with gusto.
He doesn't give a damn what you think.
The road to Raleigh has the feel of hard rain and blowin' snow.

The light of a rising sun,
the pale of a pea soup fog.
It's got the smell of hot coffee.
And the stench of diesel fuel.
It's got men.
It's got freedom.
It's got the flavor you can only get
When you're on the road to Raleigh.
Take the road to flavor.

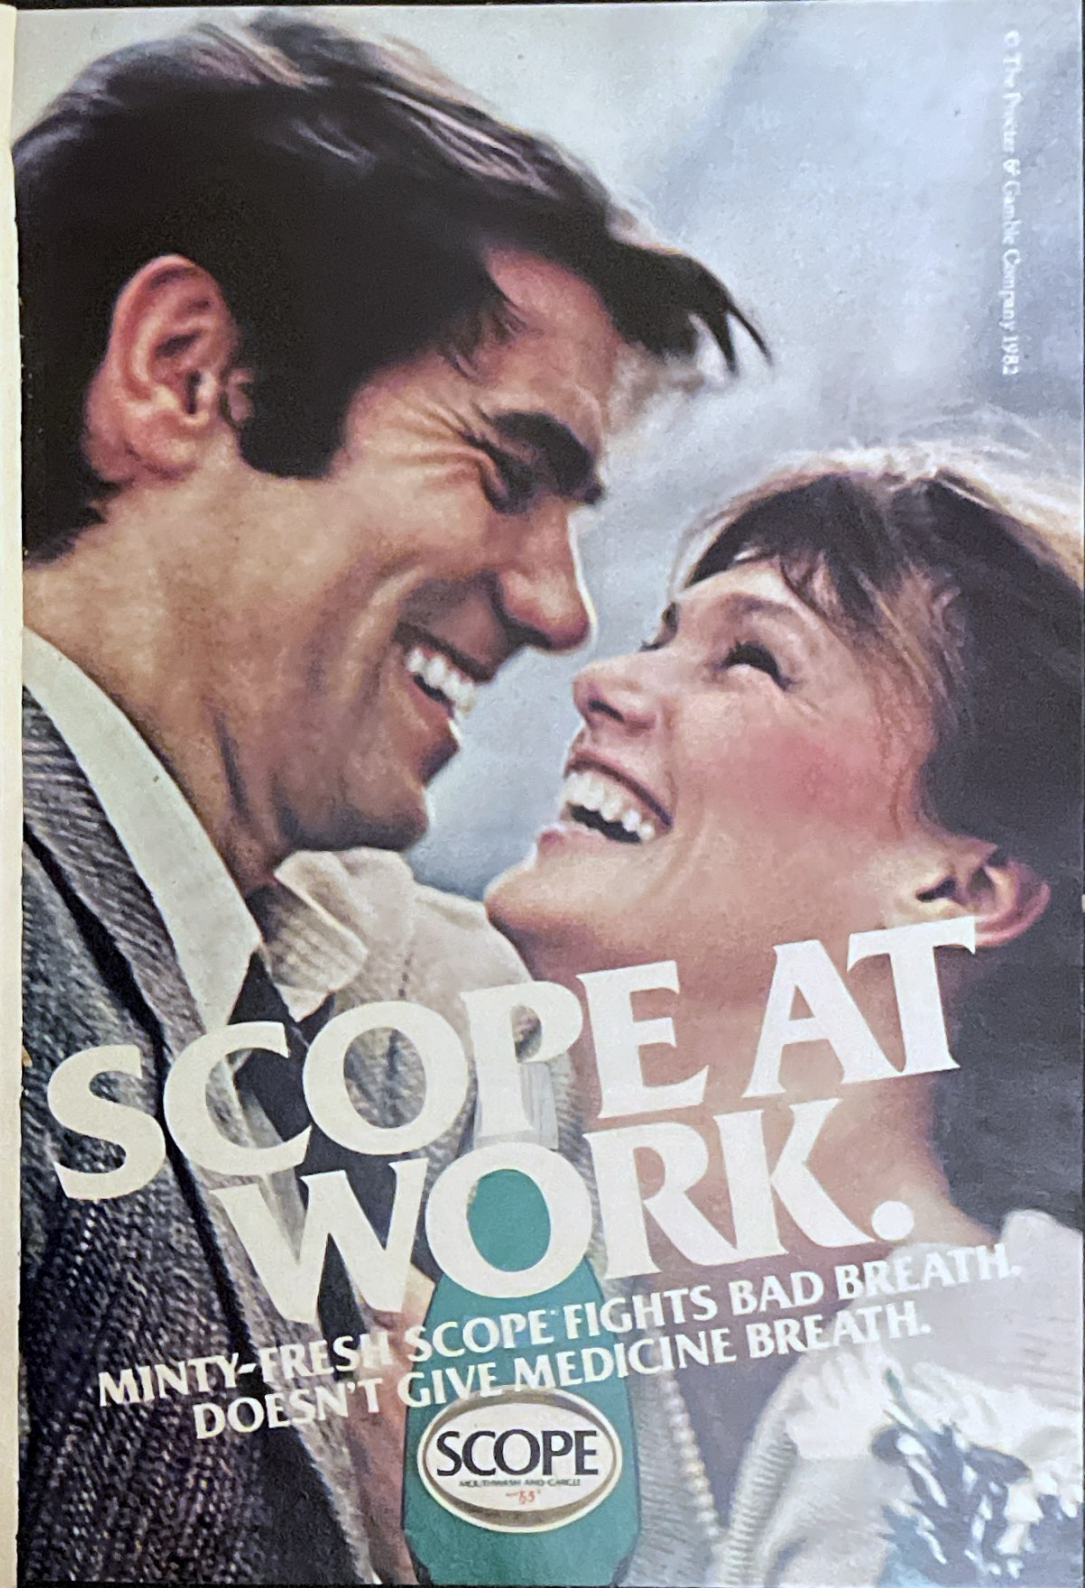

Tales of the Gold Monkey

What this country needs is a TV series that will make us forget about double-digit inflation. A series about the brooding, mysterious tropics! Jungle ambiance! A dashing, blue-eyed hero! Foreign intrigue! Say—didn't we cover all that in Bring 'em Back Alive? Sort of, but that was last night. This is Tales of the Gold Monkey, and our hero this time is Jake Cutter (Stephen Collins), a handsome cargo pilot who flies a Grumman Goose and finds himself in a hair-raising predicament every week. Jake frequents the Monkey Bar, an exotic South Seas hangout—on the island of Bora Gora, yet—that's run by Bon Chance Louie (Roddy McDowall), a devilish Frenchman. Other regulars include Corky (Jeff MacKay), Jake's beer-guzzling mechanic; Sarah White (Caitlin O'Heaney), a lovely American spy who poses as a singer; and Jack, Jake's one-eyed dog. Want more? How about a naughty Eurasian princess? A man disguised as a one-armed sea captain! A race of giant monkeys!! ABC. Pictured: Stephen Collins and "Jack."

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers

There's a lot of singin', dancin', whoopin', hollerin' an' stompin' in this series (based loosely on the 1954 MGM musical)—and some kissin', too. That's what happens when you take a spirited filly like Hannah Moss (Terri Treas) and marry her off to Adam McFadden (Richard Dean Anderson), who lives in a big ranch house with six rambunctious brothers: Brian (Drake Hogestyn), 25; Crane (Peter Horton), 21; Daniel (Roger Wilson), 18; Evan (Tim Topper), 16; Ford (Bryan Utman), 15; and Guthrie (River Phoenix), 12. Hannah is in for a shock: the boys are rowdy, their table manners are atrocious and the house is a mess. But the guys have a little surprise coming, too: when they continue to ignore Hannah at dinner, she tips the table over, food and all. Crane: "She's got my attention." CBS. Pictured (front row, l.-r.): Tim Topper, Peter Horton; (center row): Terri Treas, Richard Dean Anderson, River Phoenix, Bryan Utman; (rear): Drake Hogestyn, Roger Wilson.

Mama Malone

Let's get this straight right away: Malone rhymes with baloney. That's not an editorial comment, just a fact. Mama Malone (Lila Kaye) is the expansive hostess of a wacky TV cooking show broadcast from the kitchen of her Brooklyn apartment. You could call her an Italian Julia Child—but if you're looking for the recipe for lasagna con amore, forget it. Mama's dishes never get finished. How can they when somebody's always bursting through the door? There's Frankie, 12 (Evan Richards), Mama's grandson, who's badly in need of a father, as his man-hungry divorced momma, Connie (Randee Heller), can tell you; Dino (Don Amendolia), Mama's kid brother, a pop crooner; Padre Guardiano (Ralph Manza), an ancient parish priest; and Father José Silva (Richard Yniguez), his handsome new assistant. The misadventures of this motley ethnic crew will keep Mama much too busy to cook. So, paisan—what are you, helpless? Send out for pizza! CBS. Pictured: Lila Kaye.

"Yeah, I used your special fly. No!...it's bigger than that! Must be the granddaddy of that one Harry got last year. I'd say it's about...well, let's just say it's lucky we all like fish."

A laugh. A smile. A fish story. Reach out and keep faraway friends part of your life.

Family Ties

Elyse and Steven Keaton (Meredith Baxter Birney, Michael Gross) are showing their three children slides of those long-ago, faraway, good ol' days—the 1960s. The scene is a peace rally, and the person on screen has long, dark hair, a headband and a buckskin jacket. "Oh, Mommy, you look so pretty. Like an Indian princess," says Jennifer (Tina Yothers), 9. Elyse: "That's your father, dear." This is in 1982, and the Keaton kids can't quite relate to flower children and activism. Alex (Michael J. Fox), 17, Dresses for Success and has a poster of William F. Buckley Jr. over his bed. His sister Mallory (Justine Bateman), 15, is into designer jeans, boys and junk food. Jennifer gets off on Pac-Man. They're a loving bunch—with a chronic conflict. These ex-radical parents will never stop trying to convert their children to the joys of bean sprouts and Bob Dylan. And these conservative kids will stoutly defend their right not to be Left. NBC. Pictured (clockwise from top left): Justine Bateman, Michael J. Fox, Michael Gross, Tina Yothers, Meredith Baxter Birney.

Los Angeles. Three girls have already been murdered, and now there's a fourth. The Elevator Strangler has struck again! What now? Well, now you take a little Mr. and Mrs. North and you get husband-and-wife detectives. Then you take a little Bewitched and make the wife psychic. The result is Amanda Tucker (Catherine Hicks) who gets visions by gazing into the hypnotic blue eyes of her Siamese cat, Dickens. But Amanda's inspirations aren't always on the money, as when she gets an image of "a short, bald man with beady black eyes." That dumb cat must have been dreaming of Boss Hogg; the killer turns out to be tall, dark and blow-dried. When her cockamamie sorcery fails, Amanda can always turn to husband Rick (Tim Mattheson), or her mother (Barbara Barrie), who rides a motorcycle. This CBS series is up against Dynasty and Quincy. Best witches.

Star of the Family

Trouble? Buddy Krebs (Brian Dennehy) could write a book. For starters, his wife has run off. With a bellhop. His son Dougie (Michael Dudikoff) is 17 and eats chili dogs at 7 in the morning. Then there are the guys at the fire station, of which Buddy is captain. Max (Danny Mora) is a hotheaded Hispanic who makes mincemeat out of English; Feldman (Todd Susman) writes to his mother, who thinks he's a cardiologist; and Rosetti (George Deloy), to put it plainly, is sex-crazed. But there's always the star of the family—Buddy's pretty 16-year-old, Jennie Lee (Kathy Maisnik), a talented singer who's starting to make it big. That should make him happy, yes? Yes and no. Buddy doesn't know quite how to deal with his young star, who has suddenly acquired low-cut outfits, out-of-town gigs and a statuesque road manager named Moose (Judy Pioli). "Just think," muses Buddy, "our little Jennie, going on TV—going to San Francisco—with a person named after venison." ABC. Pictured (l.-r.): Michael Dudikoff, Brian Dennehy, Kathy Maisnik.

It Takes Two

The diagnosis is simple: Dr. Sam Quinn (Richard Crenna) has on his hands a serious case of progress. His wife Molly (Patty Duke Astin) has discovered equal rights. After years as a doting wife and mother, Molly has finished law school and is now an assistant D.A. Sam was proud of Molly—at first. Now he doesn't like the side effects (Sam: "Do you know in the last two months this bed has been used solely for the purpose of sleeping?"). In this half-hour comedy Sam will cope with feminism, Molly with chauvinism and they'll both cope with criticism from their teen-agers—Tony, 18 (Anthony Edwards), and Lisa, 16 (Helen Hunt). Their careers are fun, too. Molly is prosecuting a psychopathic juvenile: "Says it's because he comes from a broken home. Of course he comes from a broken home—he killed his father." ABC. Cheers

Cheers is a bar in Boston. At the moment, a heated debate is going on: what was the sweatiest movie ever made? Norm: "That's easy. 'Rocky II'." Cliff: "Not even close. 'Body Heat.' Sweat city." Ron: "'Ben Hur.' The boys in that galley sweat like pigs." In short, it's a typical night in this ditsy saloon, brought to you by the producers of Taxi. The owner and chief bartender is Sam Malone (Ted Danson), an ex-baseball player who has hired his out-to-lunch former coach, Ernie Pantusso (Nick Colasanto), to help him tend bar. There's also a pretty cocktail waitress, Diane Chambers (Shelley Long); a wise-cracking waitress, Carla Tortelli (Rhea Perlman); and a colorful assortment of elbow-benders such as Norm (George Wendt), who'll talk about the important things: (a) sports (b) sports trivia and (c) other trivia. And there are wondrous phone messages, like the one Diane relays from one of Sam's girl friends. Diane to Sam: "'You're a magnificent pagan beast'." Sam: "Thanks. What's the message?" NBC. Pictured (l-r.): George Wendt, Nick Colasanto, Ted Danson, Shelley Long, Rhea Perlman.

FRIDAY

The New Odd Couple

In the old Odd Couple, as everyone surely knows, Tony Randall played Felix Unger, a commercial photographer who was almost pathologically fussy. Jack Klugman was Oscar Madison, a sports-writer who was an irresponsible cigar-smoking slob. When these two guys became roommates, the result was chaos—and comedy. As you see, some things have changed: Oscar (Demond Wilson) and Felix (Ron Glass) are black. Felix does more fashion photography now and fewer weddings and bar mitzvahs. And he's less persnickety, though still particular. Some things haven't changed. Oscar is still a sportswriter—and still a slob. We're happy to report that the insults haven't changed either. In one episode Oscar is forced to become the newspaper's drama critic. Felix finds this hard to believe: "You haven't been to a show since they closed the Pussycat Theater!" ABC Pictured (l.-r.): Demond Wilson, Ron Glass.

FRIDAY

The Powers of Matthew Star

If this show has a familiar ring, that's because it was introduced here last fall, then delayed when its star, Peter Barton, was badly burned in an accident during filming. Peter must have a lucky star: he seems not much the worse for wear. He's almost as lucky as his character, Matthew Star, who has ESP and can move objects by sheer force of will. Matthew, you see, really does have a lucky star: he's actually a young superhero from another planet, called Quadris. Matthew is on the run. He's being pursued by interplanetary enemies, but he's helped by a devoted guardian, Walt Shepherd (Louis Gossett Jr.). Truth is, Matthew's tired of running. He just wants to settle down in his latest town, Crestridge, be a regular high-school kid and maybe do a little pursuing of his own—of pretty Pam Elliot (Amy Steel), a fellow student. NBC. Knight Rider

What's that—you've outgrown The Dukes of Hazzard but haven't grown into Hill Street Blues? Have we got a series for you! An undercover cop (David Hasselhoff) is rescued from a near-fatal shooting by an eccentric millionaire. He is given plastic surgery, a new identity and a new name: Michael Knight. Best of all, he gets a wonder car named Kitt. This futuristic, totally computerized vehicle thinks, talks, automatically avoids collisions and wakes Michael up when he dozes. Michael Knight is now a state-of-the-art Lone Ranger, champion of the underdog. He will reside in the secluded mansion of the millionaire (now deceased) and venture forth to do good deeds, aided by the devoted Devon (Edward Mulhare). Devon is a regular in this series, but he should watch his step. With a steed like that, who needs Tonto? NBC. Pictured (l.-r.): Edward Mulhare, David Hasselhoff.

The Quest

First there's Dan (Perry King), a photojournalist so awesomely handsome he has to beat pretty girls off with a stick. If you buy that, meet Cody (Ray Vitte), a con artist who's just figured out how to sell the Brooklyn Bridge to a scrap-metal dealer. Art (Noah Beery Jr.) is a retired cop from Wilko, Kan. And there's Carrie (Karen Austin), a department-store buyer. Don't ask us how, but these four Americans are found to be the heirs to the throne of Glendora, a tiny kingdom in the Mediterranean. Who'll get the crown? Whoever proves most worthy, most noble, most valorous—and maybe most devious. The royal contenders are cheered on by Sir Edward (John Rhys Davies) and hassled by the villainous Count Dardinay (Michael Billington). If all this sounds a bit farfetched and nutty—well, it is. Almost as nutty as some of the things that happen on the program that follows: the late news. ABC. Pictured (l.-r.): Perry King, Noah Beery Jr., Karen Austin, Ray Vitte.

Remington Steele

Can a female private eye find happiness with a figment of her imagination? Laura Holt (Stephanie Zimbalist) opened her own agency, but nobody wanted to hire a lady gumshoe. So she created a fictitious boss named Remington Steele. Voilà—the clients poured in. Then the man with Steele's face (Pierce Brosnan) appeared one day and wanted in. Now they're in business—a sexy sleuth and a "boss" of dubious background. Laura doesn't even know his real name. She doesn't want him involved in her cases. In fact, he's an expensive, exasperating pest with a talent for making the wrong move at the wrong moment. There's just one problem: she's nuts about him. And Remington is starting to get insufferable. After Laura solves a case, Remington—who knows he'll get the credit—wants to know how "he" did it. She tells him. Remington shakes his head in admiration: "God, I'm good." NBC. Pictured (l.-r.): Stephanie Zimbalist, Pierce Brosnan.

PUBLIC TV

These are the best of times and the worst of times for public television. Its audience has never been bigger (an estimated 40 million households tune in weekly) and its 1982-83 schedule couldn't be brighter—what with dramas based on the writings of Philip Roth and Nathanael West, among others; a dance series featuring Dame Margot Fonteyn; the first TV production of Wagner's complete "Ring" cycle; and a 26-week documentary series. At the same time, however, PBS is faced with at least a one-third cut in Federal funding this season—and 10 PBS stations have been authorized to experiment with advertising as a way to make up for lost funds.

The new PBS lineup begins on Oct. 10, and Sunday through Wednesday from 8 to 10 P.M. (ET) makes up the core schedule of programs running at the same time on the same nights.

SUNDAY

Nature (8 P.M., Oct. 10) is an ambitious 13-week series coproduced by New York's WNET and the BBC. Its subjects include multipart studies of animal behavior and a condor's-eye view of the Andes; a look at the delicate ecology of the Caribbean, and a visit to a Costa Rican rain forest teeming with exotic species.

Masterpiece Theatre (9 P.M.) raises its curtain on Oct. 10 with To Serve Them All My Days, a 13-part drama about a charismatic teacher at an English public school at the time of World War I. It's followed on Jan. 9 by an adaptation of Ford Madox Ford's classic novel, "The Good Soldier," with Robin Ellis (Poldark) and Jeremy Brett. Winston Churchill: The Wilderness Years (in eight parts beginning Jan. 16) casts Robert Hardy in the title role; Private Schulz (April 3) is a six-part comedy set in World War II Germany; and on May 15, D.H. Lawrence's "Sons and Lovers" begins a seven-part telecast.

In To Serve Them All My Days, the dedicated English public-school teacher and his bride are played by John Duttine and Belinda Lang.

Screenwriters/Word into Image (10 P.M., Oct. 10) is a six-part series profiling Neil Simon, Robert Towne, William Goldman and other masters of the trade—complete with clips from their films.

Profiles in American Art (10 P.M., Nov. 21) returns with Alexander Scourby narrating five new portraits of leading contemporary painters.

MONDAY

Great Performances (8 P.M.) once again provides a showcase for dance, opera, music and drama. Its 10th season opens Oct. 4 with a New York City Ballet recital marking the 100th anniversary of the birth of composer Igor Stravinsky. There will also be four new Dance in America programs, as well as dramatizations of Mark Twain's "The Mysterious Stranger" (Oct. 11) and "The Innocents Abroad" (next spring); and of Stendhal's "The Charterhouse of Parma" (Oct. 25).

The fifth year of The Shakespeare Plays offers new productions of "Henry VI," Parts 1, 2 and 3; "Richard III," "King Lear," "Cymbeline," "The Merry Wives of Windsor" and "The Comedy of Errors."

Another centennial for a composer—this one, the death of Richard Wagner—will be observed by PBS with the staging of his epic "Ring" cycle. In January, a documentary, "A Ring for Television," and the first opera in the tetralogy, "Das Rheingold," will be telecast. They'll be followed by two-part productions of "Die

In Shakespeare's "King Lear," the king's daughters are played by (l.-r.) Gillian Barge, Penelope Wilton and Brenda Blethyn.

Walküre," "Siegfried" and "Götterdämmerung."

In counterpoint to the Sturm und Drang of Wagner, the season will also include a concert of Rossini overtures, conducted by Chicago Symphony maestro Sir Georg Solti.

Monday also brings us The Magic of Dance (9 P.M.), as interpreted by the renowned prima ballerina Dame Margot Fonteyn in a six-week series that begins Oct. 25 and spans the diversely gifted footwork of Fred Astaire, Sammy Davis Jr., Rudolf Nureyev and Mikhail Baryshnikov.

Finally, Six Great Ideas with Mortimer Adler and Bill Moyers (10 P.M.) follows the philosopher and the journalist in discussions of truth, beauty, goodness, liberty, equality and justice.

TUESDAY

Nova (8 P.M.) returns on Oct. 12 for its 10th season with an investigation into the fact and fiction of UFOs. Other segments explore the remote Himalayas and the world of the gray → whales; but the most ambitious entry is a documentary about U.S. dependence on the Soviet Union and South Africa for strategic minerals.

Mystery! (9 P.M.) strikes back on Oct. 12 with "Sweeney Todd"—not the Stephen Sondheim musical but a 90-minute drama based on the legend of the vengeful London barber. Also on the docket: four detective stories featuring G.K. Chesterton's "Father Brown"; four Agatha Christie mysteries and five new episodes featuring the shrewd Sergeant Cribb (Alan Dobie).

American Playhouse (9 P.M.) returns on Jan. 11, and among the first-run productions it will offer are "Fifth of July," Lanford Wilson's Broadway hit, with Richard Thomas and Tony winner Swoosie Kurtz reprising their roles; Philip Roth's own screen version of his novel "The Ghost Writer"; an adaptation of Nathanael West's darkly humorous novel, "Miss Lonelyhearts"; and "Family Business," a TV adaptation of an off-Broadway drama, starring Milton Berle. Original productions include "For Us, the Living," about the slain civil-rights activist Medgar Evers; "The Great American Thanksgiving," by humorist Jean Shepherd; and "The Rothko Scandal," about the last years of American artist Mark Rothko.

WEDNESDAY

Specials will predominate Wednesday night throughout the season. On its Sept. 15 premiere, Live from Lincoln Center offers Leontyne Price in concert. Then follows a performance of Puccini's "Madama Butterfly," staged by the New York City Opera (Oct. 20). Live from the Met has scheduled Richard Strauss's "Der Rosenkavalier," featuring a guest appearance by Luciano Pavarotti (Thursday, Oct. 7). Also from the Met: the seldom-sung Mozart opera "Idomeneo" (Jan. 26); Wagner's "Tannhaeuser" (March 23); and Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" (Saturday, Dec. 25, with a rebroadcast on Dec. 29). On Dec. 22, Kennedy Center Tonight plans a Christmas special. There will also be a Boston Pops yuletide special, a series of White House concerts, a number of Mark Russell specials, → performances by the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and a concert with "Tom Rush and Friends."

Documentary specials will include "The Titanic: A Question of Murder"; a profile of film producer-director Stanley Kramer, with Jane Fonda as narrator; and "The Case of Dashiell Hammett," a profile of the late mystery writer. Black Americans are the subjects of several specials, including "From Slave to Statesman," with William Marshall in a one-man show about abolitionist Frederick Douglass; and Black American Soldier, a three-part study of blacks in the armed forces. National Geographic Specials will explore exotic wildlife in Central America and Australia, search out giant pandas in China and study the science of plate tectonics.

Beyond the core schedule, individual stations can schedule at their discretion. Among this year's new programs:

A yet-untitled documentary series produced by David Fanning (World) will offer

26 shows, relying on independent producers for a wide range of subjects, including adoption, unemployment, gun control and professional sports. The series is set to premiere in January.

Freedom to Speak, which will be making its debut Feb. 13, features William F. Buckley Jr., the disputatious host of Firing Line, in a weekly discussion of significant First Amendment issues and court cases.

Wild America, a 10-week series with naturalist Marty Stouffer, surveys wildlife throughout the U.S.

Finally, PBS's Adult Learning Service launches its second term of televised courses for college credit. Four new programs offered this year are The Art of Being Human, Writers' Workshop (with guest authors like Kurt Vonnegut and John Irving), a course based on the offerings of The American Short Story, and Personal Finance and Money Management, which should be of some interest to, among others, the folks who run financially pinched PBS. Feature films on pay-TV are still the most glamorous bait to lure new subscribers, and the biggest national services—Home Box Office (HBO), Showtime (SHO) and The Movie Channel (TMC)—are competing more furiously than ever before for such box-office draws as "Star Wars," "Chariots of Fire" and "The French Lieutenant's Woman." In many cases, the studios have made deals with all three for movie rights.

Original programming—all the operas, plays, dance, sports events, concerts and musicals long touted as the "promise" of cable—has begun to take hold, partly because it's economical, but also because it's bringing in such name stars as Richard Harris, Swoosie Kurtz, Richard Thomas, Angela Lansbury, Teresa Wright and Peter Allen. Cable services also are scheduling a few miniseries of their own, such as a biography of Colette and The Life of Verdi (on CBS Cable), and series that they hope will keep viewers coming back for a look at familiar faces—like those of the Fraggles, Gorgs and Doozers, the new Jim Henson Muppets who'll be coming to HBO.

Here are the season's highlights:

FEATURE FILMS

Arthur (HBO, SHO, TMC) is the comedy in which Sir John Gielgud plays butler's butler to Dudley Moore's millionaire.

Body Heat (HBO, SHO, TMC), written by Lawrence Kasdan ("Raiders of the Lost Ark"), features William Hurt, Kathleen Turner and Richard Crenna.

Chariots of Fire (SHO). The Academy Award-winning film set in the 1924 Olympics stars Ben Cross, Ian Charleson, Nigel Havers and Nicholas Farrell.

First Monday in October (HBO, SHO, TMC). Hollywood's version of how the first woman on the Supreme Court fares stars Jill Clayburgh and Walter Matthau.

The French Lieutenant's Woman (SHO, TMC) is based on John Fowles' novel and features Meryl Streep in the title role, with Jeremy Irons.

Missing (SHO), about political repression in South America, stars Jack Lemmon, Sissy Spacek and John Shea.

Mommie Dearest (HBO, SHO, TMC) gives Faye Dunaway the chance to recreate Joan Crawford on screen, eyebrows and all.

Moscow Does Not Believe in Tears (SHO, TMC). This Soviet film follows the lives and loves of three Moscow women.

Outland (HBO, SHO, TMC) stars Sean Connery in a futuristic, outer-space version of the classic "High Noon."

Paternity (HBO, SHO, TMC) is the comedy in which Burt Reynolds plays a man who takes out an ad to find a woman willing to have his child.

Rich and Famous (HBO, TMC) is a story of success and friendship, starring Candice Bergen and Jacqueline Bisset.

Sharkey's Machine (SHO). A Burt Reynolds adventure with laughs as well as costars Rachel Ward and Henry Silva.

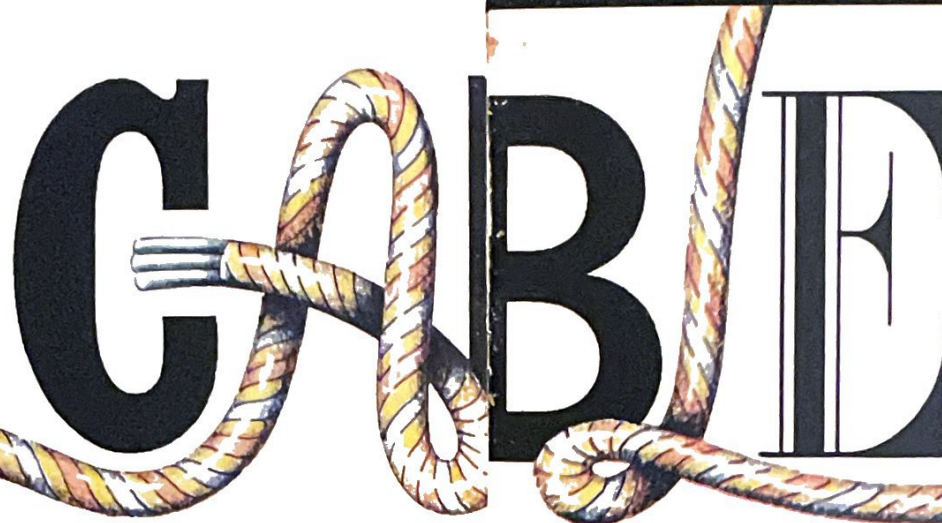

Star Wars (SHO), with Mark Hamill, Harrison Ford, Carrie Fisher and James Earl Jones, is the George Lucas film that spurred Hollywood's recent infatuation with science fiction.

True Confessions (HBO, TMC) follows two brothers, one a priest, one a police detective, who become involved in murder in 1940s Los Angeles. Robert Duvall, Robert De Niro, Charles Durning.

June. Additionally, ESPN plans to telecast 35 college football games, plus nine bowl contests, another 16 Canadian football games (the season begins in July), 50 National Basketball Association matchups, plus up to 135 college basketball games and the early NCAA tournament rounds.

The USA Cable Network has 50 college football games on its schedule, along with 50 NBA games and up to 70 college basketball games. At least 33 National Hockey League games will be seen on USA.

WTBS also entered sportscasting recently, securing the rights to telecast 19 NCAA football games this fall.

YOUNGSTERS' SHOWS

Nickelodeon (NIK) introduces Lights! Cameras! Action!, a series of 12 shows in which Leonard Nimoy takes viewers behind the scenes of new movies (including "Superman III," "Black Stallion II" and "Revenge of the Jedi") to show the secrets of filmmaking. You Can't Do

That on Television is a young people's version of Laugh-In, written by kids. Bill Bixby is host of Against the Odds, a series that profiles the lives of famous people, among them Winston Churchill, Joan of Arc, Charles Lindbergh, Amelia Earhart, Golda Meir and Martin Luther King Jr. Kids' Writes is a series that will dramatize stories, poems and letters written by young people. Among NIK's movies is "Tuck Everlasting," based on Natalie Babbitt's award-winning novel about a mysterious teen-ager and his family who live in the forest.

HBO hopes to attract the kids—and their parents—with Fraggle Rock, created by the Muppets' Jim Henson. It's a place "just beyond everyday reality," which is populated by "small, funny, furry fellows who love to sing." On HBO's short-story lineup for kids are O. Henry's "The Cop and the Anthem," starring Robert Morse as a bum named Soapy; and Bret Harte's "The Luck of Roaring Camp," about an infant adopted by miners.

NEW NETWORKS

There'll be even more children's shows available next season when The Disney Channel makes its debut in 1983.

The Nashville Network, specializing in country music and sports, will begin 18-hour-a-day cablecast early in 1983.

More new services will undoubtedly make their announcements as the season progresses. Stay tuned. END

This is the TV season pro football fans have been dreaming of—and pro football “widows” dreading. Starting in March, when ABC unveils its seedling United States Football League (USFL), pro football becomes TV’s first year-round sports attraction.

Pro Football: On Sept. 12, the networks begin 12 months (counting August exhibition games) of pro mayhem. From September through December, CBS will offer 100 regular-season NFL contests. NBC will present 103.

On Jan. 2, CBS and NBC will telecast, respectively, an NFC and an AFC wildcard playoff, with divisional playoffs Jan. 8 and 9, and the NFC and AFC championships Jan. 16. On Sunday, Jan. 30, NBC will show Super Bowl XVII from the Pasadena, Cal., Rose Bowl.

On Sept. 13, at 9 P.M. (ET), ABC’s Monday Night Football debuts with Pittsburgh vs. Dallas. The network will have 15 other consecutive Monday match-ups. ABC will also air another quintet of prime-timers—three on Thursdays, two on Sundays. On Feb. 6, ABC presents the Pro Bowl from Honolulu.

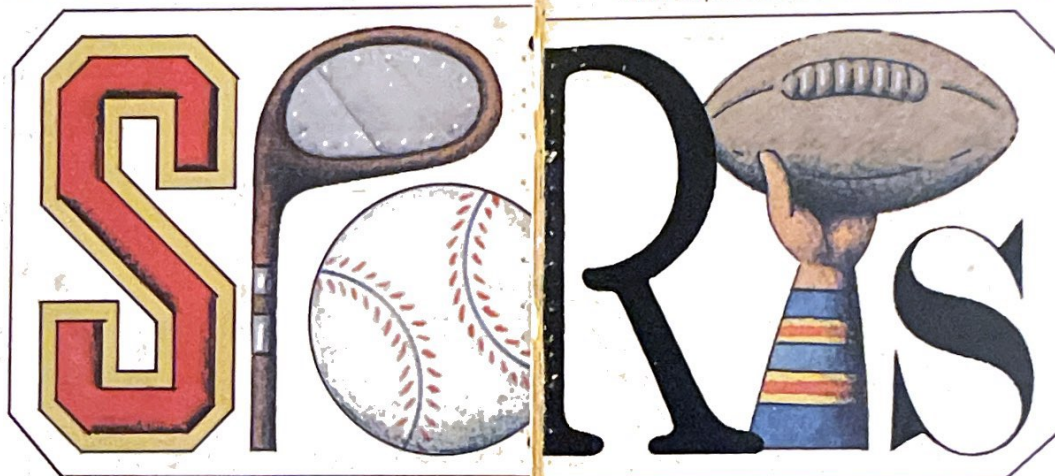

Then, on March 6, ABC inaugurates its coverage of the USFL—adding a touch of color (dollar-green) to TV’s traditionally drab spring-to-midsummer sports schedule. Over 17 weeks, ABC will broadcast 20 USFL games (on Sunday afternoons, except for one prime-timer), including a pair of playoffs and the USFL championship July 10.

College Football: ABC has its seedling pro football league; CBS has a bouquet of college football games plucked from ABC’s once-private garden. On Sept. 18 (9 P.M.), ABC will air a top early-season prime-time contest, Michigan vs. Notre Dame. Other national telecasts include: Nov. 26, Oklahoma vs. Nebraska at 2:30 P.M. (CBS); Nov. 27, Alabama vs. Auburn at 12 (ABC) and Notre Dame vs. Southern Cal at 3:30 (CBS); and Dec. 4, Arkansas vs. Texas at 3:30 (ABC) and Army vs. Navy at 12 (CBS).

CBS leads off the bowl-game parade Dec. 25 with the Blue-Gray All-Star Classic (12) and the Sun Bowl (3). The pageantry (and punishment) continues on: Dec. 30, Gator Bowl (9, ABC); Dec. 31, Peach Bowl (3, CBS); Jan. 1, Fiesta Bowl (1:30, NBC); Cotton Bowl (2, CBS); Rose Bowl (4:30, NBC); and Orange Bowl (8, NBC); plus ABC’s Sugar Bowl, also at 8. NBC signs off with the Hula Bowl Classic from Honolulu Jan. 15.

Baseball: ABC’s Monday-night and Sunday-afternoon big-league coverage concludes with the American and National League playoffs, from Oct. 5 through (if necessary) Oct. 10. NBC’s Saturday telecasts culminate with the 79th World Series, starting Oct. 12 and 13 in the NL stadium with game 3 Oct. 15 (all 8 P.M.) and game 4 Oct. 16 (at 1) in the AL stadium. If necessary, game 5 will be Oct. 17 (at 4) in the AL city, games 6 and 7 Oct. 19 and 20 (at 8) in the NL ballpark.

Pro Basketball: This season, CBS will telecast only four regular-season NBA contests: Jan. 30, Los Angeles vs. Boston; March 6, Philadelphia vs. New Jersey; April 15, Seattle vs. L.A.; and April 17, Philadelphia vs. Boston. CBS shows the run-and-gun NBA all-star gambol Feb. 13 from L.A., and televises the NBA playoffs beginning April 22, with the championship series scheduled to start May 24.

College Basketball: CBS starts the season Nov. 27 with North Carolina against Missouri. On Dec. 4, CBS offers Villanova vs. Kentucky, and NBC presents North Carolina vs. LSU. NBC airs the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship on March 14. CBS’s basketball season rolls on with the NCAA championship semifinals on April 2. The NCAA championship game will be in prime time on CBS, April 4.

Horse Racing: On May 7, ABC airs the race with the most prestige, the Kentucky Derby. It will be followed by ABC’s Preakness Stakes on May 21 and CBS’s Belmont Stakes June 11. In August, NBC televises the race with the biggest purse, the Arlington Million.

Golf: NBC will delight duffers with the Bob Hope Desert Classic, Jan. 22 and 23.

CBS tees off with the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am, Feb. 5 and 6. Other oases on the network tour include: the Hawaiian Open, Feb. 12 and 13, and the Bay Hill Classic, March 12 and 13 (both NBC); and the Tournament Players Championship, March 26 and 27, and the Masters Tournament, April 9 and 10 (both CBS). Then ABC unleashes its prize threesome: the U.S. Open (June 16-19), the British Open (July 16 and 17) and the PGA Championship (Aug. 5-7). ABC also has the U.S. Women’s Open, July 30 and 31. CBS adds the World Series of Golf on Aug. 27 and 28.

Tennis: On Sept. 10, CBS covered the women’s semifinals of the U.S. Open. The men’s Open semifinals and women’s final follow on Sept. 11, with the men’s final Sept. 12. NBC’s Wimbledon coverage begins June 19 with a “special,” while actual competition concludes July 3 with the men’s championship televised live.

Auto Racing: The sprint from pole position to cork-popping starts with the Daytona 500 (CBS) on Feb. 20. Then ABC offers the Atlanta 500 in March, the Rebel 500 in April, and the million-dollar-plus Indy 500 (including time trials over two weekends) in May.

Anthologies: ABC’s Wide World of Sports highlights: The National Sports Festival (July); U.S. Figure Skating Championships; World Ski Jumping Championships; World Wristwrestling Championships; U.S. and NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships; the Fifth Avenue Mile; the Ironman World Endurance Triathlon; plus the debut of the Great American Bicycle Race, with five Americans pedaling, for prizes, nonstop from California to New York. CBS Sports Saturday/Sunday presents the World Figure Skating Championships and World Cup Skiing. NBC’s SportsWorld offers the marathon Tour de France bike race, plus World Cup Skiing.

Boxing: Big-time network boxing is on the ratings rebound, after nearly being kayoed by the clout of closed-circuit theater TV. This season, all three networks promise a flurry of attractive bouts (although none are yet named), with ABC also continuing its buildup of the amateurs for the 1984 Summer Olympics.

Other Events: On Oct. 24, ABC airs the New York City Marathon, live, over three hours. ABC’s Pro Bowlers Tour gets rolling in mid-January for 16 weeks, and Superstars returns in February. CBS plans extensive coverage of the Pan American Games, Aug. 14-20, from Caracas, Venezuela. Throughout the TV season, Howard Cosell will be presenting his investigations on ABC’s weekly SportsBeat.

Finally, recalling the time when then-President Jimmy Carter was attacked by a rabbit while fishing, TV viewers can watch Jimmy and spouse Rosalynn pursuing salmon on Quebec’s Matapedia River. However, this time the former President will be doing the mugging for ABC’s American Sportsman. (E)

Real People is making its debut in syndication this fall along with a lot of other network series, but "Weird People" perhaps most aptly describes some of the original syndicated programs that are being offered. There are game shows, for instance, whose emcees range from the short (two midget brothers) to the merely wooden (a ventriloquist's dummy). And speaking of dummies, there's yet another one, named Madame, who's the hostess of a mock late-night talk show. If you think that's weird, you should have seen the orangutan (co-host of an unsold quiz show) that got away. In fact, not even two dozen of the more than 250 projects that were pitched to stations last spring have been picked up for this season. Here are some of the lucky handful (which may not all show up in major cities):

That ... Quiz Show has two diminutive brothers, John and Greg Rice, confronting guests with questions on death, halitosis, syphilis and other tasteful topics.

So You Think You Got Troubles? I Go tell them to ventriloquist Jay Johnson and his dummy Bob, who elicit the advice of various experts, including a doctor, a minister and even an astrologist.

Madame's Place is where that "legendary film star" (and, let's be honest, puppet) the risqué Madame interviews both real and make-believe (but human) celebrities. Pulling the strings is comedian Wayland Flowers.

Tom Cottle: Up Close at least has real celebrities as guests (Milton Berle, Margaret Trudeau, Rod Steiger and Daniel J. Travanti, among others), whose personal lives are X-rayed by Cottle, a Boston psychologist formerly seen on PBS stations.

At the Movies features reviews by two more PBS defectors, Gene Siskel and Roger Ebert (of Sneak Previews fame).

The Barry Farber Show allows the conservative radio talk-show host a weekly forum, pitting guests on opposite sides of such issues as gun control, pornography and racism. Also coming over from radio (in January) is Larry King (The Larry King Show), while Jack Anderson Confidential gives the columnist a weekly half hour in which to muckrake.

Laugh Trax offers a break from all that serious chatter: it's a blend of rock music and comedy—the latter provided by host Jim Staahl and a resident troupe.

Original dramatic specials this fall include an adaptation of John Le Carré's novel "Smiley's People," with Alec Guinness as the inscrutable spy George Smiley, presented by Operation Prime Time in November. Also that month: "Blood and Honor," a two-parter about the Hitler youth movement. And in January, Mobil Showcase presents the Royal Shakespeare Company's epic play, The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby.

The glut of network shows seeking fresh life in syndication includes Vega$, Three's Company, Eight Is Enough, CHiPs, One Day at a Time, Harry O, Mork & Mindy and WKRP in Cincinnati. Except for Mork, there's not a weird one in the bunch. END
